Protest against Alleged Discrimination against Clerical and Stenographic Forces of the City in the Recommendations of J. L. Jacobs & Co.

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following communication, which was, together with the communication transmitted therewith, ordered published and referred to the Committee on Finance:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, December 22, 1931.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith a communication from the president of the Office Employees Association of the City of Chicago protesting against what they claim to be a discrimination against the clerical and stenographic forces of the City in the recommendation of J. L. Jacobs & Company for 1932 appropriations.

OFFICE EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION,
CHICAGO, December 14, 1931.

Hon. Anton J. Cermak, Mayor, City of Chicago:

DEAR SIR—After making a careful survey of the Appropriations recommended by J. L. Jacobs & Company for the various City departments for the year 1932, it is apparent the clerical and stenographic forces are scheduled to bear the brunt of the proposed retrenchment, both in the reduction of salaries and the elimination of positions. This class of employment in the City service has never been noted for high pay in comparison with many other trades and it is therefore necessary to reduce or eliminate the earning capacity of many more employees in order to save a stated amount, than would be necessary if the retrenchment were equitably spread over all activities.

In view of the present revenue situation in Cook County, we thoroughly agree it may be prudent and necessary to reduce the costs of public government. However we do not believe that any regular Civil Service employe in the service today occupies a position where no duties exist, therefore, and in consideration of the present aggravated condition of unemployment, we strenuously oppose the elimination of any Civil Service positions at this time.

It is manifestly unfair that any particular group of employees should suffer financial distress and the loss of employment when sufficient saving might be effected by spreading the reductions, if necessary over all classes of employment.

I respectfully request that we be given a hearing on this important matter.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

JAMES FLYNN,
President.

Suggestion of a Plan for a Reduction of City Expenditures during 1932 in Lieu of Further Layoffs of Civil Service Employees.

MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES SOCIETY OF CHICAGO,
CHICAGO, December 21, 1931.

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor of Chicago, City Hall, Chicago, Illinois:

DEAR SIR—The Municipal Employees Society (an organization of City employes founded in 1911 and numbering 5,700 paid up members), commends your sincerity and purpose in this financial crisis. We deplore, however, the possibility of several thousand more City workers being deprived of their livelihood and rights which they have labored years to attain. With this in mind we beg to submit for your consideration the attached resolution adopted by the Executive Board of our Society on December 18, 1931.

Respectfully,

MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES SOCIETY.

(Signed)

JAMES W. ERRANT, Manager.

MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES SOCIETY OF CHICAGO,
CHICAGO, December 18, 1931.

The proposed 1932 budget is designed to save the City of Chicago a certain sum of money; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Executive Board of the Municipal Employees Society (an organization numbering 5700 paid up members) that the City Council Finance Committee set up as the 1932 budget the same budget as was adopted by the Council in 1931 with the proviso in this new budget that the department heads are to spend not more than 85% of this appropriation; and further, that upon approval of the budget in this form by the Council, the Mayor and his cabinet work out a plan for apportioning this 15% saving so as to maintain efficiency in the departments, to bear equally upon all officers and employes of the City, and to avoid further layoffs of civil service employes not engaged in seasonal occupations.

Acknowledgment of Receipt of a Resolution Commending the Services of Col. Weeks in the Chicago Region, Etc.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, which was ordered published and placed on file:

December 17, 1931.

Honorable Peter J. Brady, City Clerk, City of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois:

MY DEAR MR. BRADY—Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of December 11, 1931, enclosing a copy of a resolution adopted by the City Council of the City of Chicago, regarding the services rendered by Colonel William C. Weeks, Corps of Engineers, as District Engineer, First Chicago District.

It is very gratifying to the War Department to receive such a commendatory report concerning the services of Colonel Weeks and it is appreciated that this matter has been brought to its attention.

A proper notation is being made on the records of Colonel Weeks and the matter is also being brought to the attention of the Chief of Engineers.

Before issuing orders on the transfer of Colonel Weeks, due consideration was given the status of the work on which he is engaged so as to avoid any interference with important projects. The date of his transfer was fixed as of January 1, 1932, in order to enable him to complete his work on the Calumet Waterways Survey. It is not believed, therefore, that Colonel Weeks' relief at the time indicated will impair in any way the progress of this project.

Colonel Weeks' successor, Lieutenant Colonel D. I. Sultan, Corps of Engineers, is an officer of ability and experience, who has recently returned from Nicaragua, where he was engaged for two years in the survey of a route for an interoceanic canal across that country.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)

C. H. BRIDGES,
Major General, The Adjutant General.

Protest against Payment of Salaries of Aldermen and City Employees before Those of School Teachers.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, which was ordered published and placed on file:

December 24, 1931.

To the City Council of Chicago:

The South Side Teachers, by our delegates assembled in meeting December 21, 1931, denounce bitterly and vehemently the injustice of paying members of the City Council and employees of five departments of the City their salaries a month before these are earned, as reported in the press, at the same time that teachers remain unpaid for periods of five to seven months.

We also protest against the plan projected according to the press, by City Comptroller Szymczak and unidentified individuals to use money obtained from sale of warrants to pay City employees whose salary is only two weeks overdue while teachers, whose plight has been used as the chief sales appeal in disposing of these warrants, are promised a mere pittance of two weeks' salary due since last April.

THE SOUTH SIDE TEACHERS,

(Signed)

By ROBERT P. RUSSELL,
Secretary.

Claim of James Kennedy.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

Extension of Time for Acceptance of an Ordinance Providing for a Comprehensive, Unified Local Transportation System for the City of Chicago and Metropolitan Area.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Corporation Counsel:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, December 22, 1931.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—We submit herewith a letter addressed to your honorable body by Mr. Walter L. Fisher, special counsel on traction matters, which was submitted to the law department for examination before being forwarded to your honorable body.

We have examined the said letter and find that it contains statements of fact which are correct and which should properly come to the attention of your honorable body. The gist of the matter is that Mr. Fisher submits certain ordinances which extend the time which the local transportation company has for accepting the ordinance of May 19, 1930. The passage of such ordinances is entirely within the discretion of the City Council, our only comment on the situation being that necessarily, if it is intended that the traction ordinance should go into effect, the time will have to be extended within which it is to be accepted.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

LEON HORNSTEIN,
Acting Corporation Counsel.

The following are the communications transmitted with the foregoing communication:

CHICAGO, December 18, 1931.

To the Mayor and City Council of the City of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois:

GENTLEMEN—At the request of Alderman James B. Bowler, Chairman of the Committee on Local Transportation of the Chicago City Council, I have examined a letter of this date addressed to him by the Chicago Local Transportation Company requesting an extension of time for the acceptance of the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance of 1930 and stating the reasons therefor. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit now has under advisement the appeals to which reference was made in the letter of May 5, 1931, of the Chicago Local Transportation Company to the Committee on Local Transportation, and no definite prediction can be made as to when this litigation will be finally determined. As was pointed out in that letter, appeals may be taken from the final decrees of sale in the Federal Court, and these will have to be determined before such sale can be finally confirmed. So far as I am aware there are no steps which can be taken by the parties in interest to expedite the determination of this litigation. There are many possibilities of delay by dilatory tactics, or even by proceedings which cannot be correctly described as solely dilatory. In my judgment the Traction Companies and their counsel, as well as the Chicago Local Transportation Company and the Reorganization Manager, have proceeded with all reasonable expedition to obtain a final determination of the matters upon which the sale of the Traction properties in the receivership proceedings in the Federal Court depends. Further progress appears to depend upon matters which are beyond their control.

The quo warranto suit instituted by the Attorney-General of Illinois, and the suit brought by certain taxpayers, both of which attack the validity of the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance and of the enabling legislation of 1929, have been decided in favor of the City by the trial courts in which they were pending, and the appeals from these decisions to the Supreme Court of Illinois have been argued upon voluminous briefs and upon oral argument. The Supreme Court of Illinois has taken these cases under advisement and a decision may be expected at the next or some succeeding term of that court. Under the rules of that court the losing party has the right to file a petition for rehearing which may further delay the final disposition of the cases.

Upon consideration of the entire situation, it is my judgment that the request of the Chicago Local Transportation Company for a year's extension should be granted upon the distinct understanding which it states, that the Company will accept the ordinance sooner if this can be done.

I am, therefore, transmitting to you, at the suggestion of Alderman Bowler, the necessary ordinances to accomplish this result. One of these ordinances extends the time for acceptance of the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance to and including January 31, 1933, and the other ordinance consents to further day to day operation of the surface street railways, but not longer than January 31, 1933.

I also enclose a copy of the letter of December 18, 1931, from the Chicago Local Transportation Company to Alderman Bowler, to which reference is made above.

Yours respectfully,

CHICAGO, December 18, 1931.

Alderman James B. Bowler, Chairman, Committee on Local Transportation, Chicago City Council, Chicago, Illinois:

DEAR SIR—The time within which Chicago Local Transportation Company is required to accept the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance of 1930 will expire on the 31st of January, 1932. This company has made every possible effort to be in a position to accept the ordinance in accordance with its terms within the time which has been granted to us, but owing to delays imposed upon us by litigation over which we have no control, we still find that we will not be able to do so.

As your Committee was advised by us on May 5, 1931, the financial plan for the acquisition of the properties of the surface and elevated lines provided for in the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance has been declared operative, and there are sufficient securities available under the Plan to acquire the properties of these several companies.

The appeals in the Federal Court to which we refer in our letter of May 5, 1931, are still pending and undetermined in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, which has taken them under advisement. We are advised by counsel that further proceedings for the actual sale of the traction properties of the surface lines, which are in receivership in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, must await the decision of these cases, and that there is no way of ascertaining when a final determination of the appeals may be expected. There are also pending in the Supreme Court of Illinois two cases in which the validity of the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance and of the enabling legislation of 1929 is being attacked. These cases are also under advisement and the date of their final determination is also uncertain. They must be finally determined before this company can accept the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance.

We regret exceedingly that this will necessitate an extension of the time within which the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance must be accepted. We can assure you, however, that it is still our purpose and intention to accept the Ordinance at the very earliest moment practicable. We have done everything possible up to the present time to enable us to comply with the Ordinance, and we will proceed to do everything in our power to do this.

We are advised by the surface lines that they have fully completed the expedited improvements for which the City Council has made provision, and that the amount of new mileage thus provided is substantially equivalent to the requirements in that regard for a three year period under the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance. We are also advised by the Chicago Rapid Transit Company that it has expended approximately $4,500,000.00 for the expedited improvements on its system, and that the work will continue just as rapidly as practicable. Preparations for additional work are now in progress.

Taking into consideration the entire situation with which we are confronted, it is our best judgment that the time for acceptance of the Comprehensive Traction Ordinance should be extended to at least January 31, 1933, and we respectfully request that such extension be granted. If the ordinance can be accepted in the meantime, we assure you that it is our desire and intention so to do.

Yours very truly,

CHICAGO LOCAL TRANSPORTATION COMPANY.

CHARLES F. CLARKE,
President.

SECTION 2. Except as substituting for January 31, 1932, whatever date thereafter (by expiration, termination or non-acceptance of this consent) becomes the date on which day-to-day operation hereunder of said street railway systems ends, nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed as being in any event a grant to said companies, or any of them, which adds to or takes from, or in any manner prejudices any right or rights, of the City of Chicago or of the said companies, or any of them, as the said rights exist at and upon the 31st day of January, 1932; and street railway operation after said date, in streets and public places in the City of Chicago, shall constitute acceptance by the said companies, and by the receivers of said companies, of all the terms and conditions upon which this consent is given by the City of Chicago, unless and until said companies and/or said receivers affirmatively evidence their non-acceptance of the said terms and conditions by the filing of written notice with the Clerk of the City of Chicago or by otherwise affirmatively evidencing such non-acceptance.

The above elevations as fixed shall be measured from Chicago City datum, as established by the City Council of the City of Chicago.

The roadways of the several streets specified above between the points herein described and also the roadways of all intersecting streets and alleys extended from the curb line to the street line on each side of said above specified streets between the points herein described, after removing the trees and stumps therefrom, shall be so graded by cutting or filling, and compacted by rolling with a roller of ten (10) tons weight that after the grading of the roadbeds is completed and the pavement herein described placed thereon, the surface of the finished pavement at the center of the roadway of each of said above specified streets and at the center of the roadways of all intersecting streets shall be at the elevation of the top of the curbing herein described, and the surface of the finished pavement at the summits between catchbasins and adjoining the roadway face of the curbing shall be two (2) inches below the top of said curbing, and at the catchbasin inlets adjoining the roadway face of the curbing shall be eight (8) inches below the top of said curbing. The slope of the finished pavement adjoining the roadway face of said curbing shall be uniform from the summits to the catchbasin inlets.

A transverse section of the surface of the finished pavement shall be an arc of a circle passing through the surface of the pavement adjoining the curbing and the surface of the pavement at the center of said roadway at every part of the roadway of each of said above specified streets and of all intersecting streets between the points herein described.

In all intersecting alleys herein specified at the street lines of said above specified streets, the surface of the finished pavement adjoining the curbing shall be even with the top of the curbing, and the surface of the finished pavement at the center of the roadways of said alleys shall be three (3) inches below the top of the curbing, and a transverse section of the surface of the finished pavement at the street lines of said above specified streets shall be an arc of a circle passing through the surface of the pavement adjoining said curbing and the surface of the pavement at the center of said finished roadways. The surface of the said pavement thence shall slope gradually to meet the surface of the pavement at the curb lines of said above specified streets.

A foundation of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches thick shall be laid upon the roadbeds thus prepared, between said points and between said curbing.

The sand used in making concrete for the said concrete foundation shall be clean and sharp, free from dust, dirt and other impurities, and may contain not more than three (3) per cent of clay or loam, and graded so that not less than ninety-five (95) per cent can pass a four (4) mesh sieve and not more than twenty-five (25) per cent can pass a fifty (50) mesh sieve.

The limestone screenings used in making concrete for the said concrete foundation shall be made from the best quality of limestone, free from dust, dirt and other impurities, and shall be graded so that not less than ninety-five (95) per cent can pass a four (4) mesh sieve and not more than fifteen (15) per cent can pass a one hundred (100) mesh sieve.

The blast furnace slag, limestone, or other stone equivalent in quality for concrete purposes, used in making the concrete for the said concrete foundation shall be of the best quality of each of the respective materials to be used, clean, free from dust and graded so that one hundred (100) per cent can pass a ring of two (2) inches inside diameter, and not less than forty (40) per cent nor more than seventy (70) per cent can pass a ring of three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of an inch inside diameter, and not more than ten (10) per cent can pass a ring of one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of an inch inside diameter.

The Portland cement used in this improvement shall be ground so that ninety-two (92) per cent can pass a one hundred (100) mesh sieve, and shall be of such quality that briquettes made of a mortar composed of a proper amount of clean water, one (1) part by volume of said Portland cement and three (3) parts by volume of said sand used for making the concrete for the said concrete foundation, shall have, at the expiration of seven (7) days, an ultimate tensile strength of at least two hundred (200) pounds per square inch, after being exposed to the air for the first day and then submerged in water for the six (6) following days.

The concrete for the said concrete foundation shall be made by mixing by volume one (1) part of said

Portland cement, two (2) parts of said sand or two (2) parts of said limestone screenings and three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) parts of said blast furnace slag, said limestone or other stone, together with a proper amount of clean water in a rotary batch mixer until thoroughly mixed. The said mixture shall then be spread upon the surface of the roadbed prepared as herein prescribed and rammed until thoroughly compacted. The upper surface of said concrete foundation shall be parallel with and two (2) inches below the upper surface of the finished pavement.

The following is said resolution as adopted:

WHEREAS, There has been introduced into the Legislature of our State by Representative Frank Ryan a proposed amendment to the Boxing Bill calling for fifteen rounds in championship matches, the primary purpose of the bill being not to benefit boxing directly or give fifteen rounds, but chiefly to effect legislation to bring heavyweight championship battles here, which will put Chicago on the same equal with New York, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities, and will greatly swell the revenue for the State—a championship bout between Schmeling and Walker, it is estimated would add upwards of $65,000.00 to the State's revenue, and a bout between Schmeling and Dempsey, it is declared would add anywhere from $200,000.00 to $300,000.00 to the State's revenue; and

WHEREAS, A championship bout in Chicago would bring thousands of people to this City, thereby adding to the revenue of the railroads, hotels, merchants, and other business enterprises, and will show to thousands of out-of-town people the vastness and beauty of our city; will help the communities and residents of downstate Illinois because of the thousands of dollars in additional revenue that would be obtained by the entire State;

Further, It has been suggested that a championship bout could be held here for charity, thereby bringing tens of thousands of dollars to charitable relief organizations; the newspapers of our community stating that such a measure already has the endorsement of Samuel Insull, Jr., heading the Joint Emergency Relief Fund Drive, the Chamber of Commerce, the Association of Commerce, hotel men and railroad officials, as well as public-spirited citizens and civic organizations; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City Council of the City of Chicago does hereby endorse the proposed amendment to the Boxing Bill now pending before the Legislature, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the members of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

CONTRACTS AND PURCHASES.

716A. Requisitions and standards.) No commodities shall be purchased unless the same shall be based upon standards and specifications which are definite and certain as to character and quality and in cases of standard commodities which are used in common by two or more city agencies or departments, all such contracts and purchases shall be based upon standards and specifications as adopted by the board of standardization heretofore provided for. No commodities shall be purchased by the commissioner of central purchasing unless and until a proper requisition for the same has been filed with him by some head of a department of the city or other official authorized to make such requisition.

716B. Contracts and orders.) The commissioner of central purchasing shall and he is hereby authorized to, make all purchases of commodities and enter into contracts for the delivery of the same, and enter into contracts for contractual services which come within the jurisdiction of his department, on behalf of the city. All written contracts shall be signed by the commissioner of central purchasing and shall be countersigned by the mayor and comptroller; and all such contracts shall be approved as to form by the corporation counsel.

716C. Appropriation certificate.) No order for delivery on any contract or order for the purchase of commodities or contractual services shall be issued unless and until the comptroller has certified that there is to the credit of the appropriation from which payment therefor must be made a sum sufficient to meet the obligation incurred and that such appropriation account has been encumbered for the full amount of such obligation; and no work shall be ordered done on any contract for contractual services unless and until such certificate is had and filed with the commissioner of central purchasing.

716D. Advertising for bids.) Whenever the amount to be paid is in excess of five hundred dollars, the commissioner of central purchasing shall advertise for bids in the manner required for the letting of construction contracts by the commissioner of public works, and the contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. Provided that where a contract is to be awarded to any but the bidder who has made the lowest bid and the contract is to be let to a higher bidder on the ground of the irresponsibility of the lowest bidder, or upon any other ground, a report setting forth detailed information of the bids received shall be submitted by the commissioner of central purchasing to the mayor and by him transmitted to the city council. Upon the approval of such contract by a two-thirds vote of the city council and the approval of the mayor the said commissioner of central purchasing shall enter into such contract on behalf of the city and all information giving the basis on which action is taken shall be printed in the journal of the proceedings of the city council. All provisions relating to the receipt, handling, opening, rejection or acceptance of bids and to the letting of the contract which apply to contracts let by the commissioner of public works shall apply to contracts let by the commissioner of central purchasing when advertising for bids is required except as hereinafter provided.

In case of an emergency arising from unforeseen causes, including delays by contractors, delays in transportation and unanticipated volume of work, which emergency requires immediate purchase of commodities or contractual services the city council with the approval of the mayor may authorize the commissioner of central purchasing to secure in the open market at the lowest obtainable price any commodities or contractual services regardless of the amount of the expenditure; provided, however, that a full explanation of the circumstances of such emergency shall be entered in the journal of the proceedings of the city council and shall be open to public inspection.

The splitting or division of requisitions or orders for like commodities or contractual services so as to bring the amount of each such requisition or order below $500.00 and thus avoid advertising for bids, as required by law, is hereby expressly prohibited and declared to be contrary to the intent and purpose of this ordinance. It shall be particularly the duty of the commissioner of central purchasing to examine requisitions or orders for commodities or contractual services of less than $500.00, and make such further investigation as may be necessary to determine whether the requirements of the department or office making such requisitions for the commodities or contractual services specified are actually less than $500.00 in value, and that such requisitions for commodities or contractual services of less than $500.00 value are not so made for the purpose of avoiding advertising for bids as required by law.

All purchases or contracts less than five hundred dollars in amount shall, wherever possible, be based on at least three competitive bids, and shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. The commissioner of central purchasing shall solicit bids by direct mail and/or telephone request to prospective vendors, and by public notice on a bulletin board in his office. The commissioner of central purchasing shall keep a record of all such purchases and contracts and the bids submitted in competition thereon, and such records shall also be open to public inspection.

716E. Surety or deposit.) Before any contract is awarded the successful bidder or prospective vendor or contractor shall file with the commissioner of central purchasing a surety bond or bonds running to the City of Chicago in an amount not less than 33-1/3 per cent of the maximum amount in the contract to insure compliance with the terms of the contract. All such bonds shall be approved as to form by the corporation counsel. Provided that the commissioner of central purchasing may receive and approve from any responsible vendor a bond to be in force for any length of time not exceeding one year to apply on any contract or purchase made or entered into with the vendor furnishing such permanent bond. The amount of such bond shall at all times not be less than fifty per cent of the total payments called for on any contract or order let to such vendor and in force or unexecuted at any time.

Provided further that contracts calling for the expenditure of amounts not in excess of five hundred dollars may be let without requiring any surety bond or deposit from the vendor or contractor, in the discretion of the commissioner of central purchasing.

716F. Purchases and contracts.) All contracts or purchase orders for supplies, materials or equipment of any kind needed by the city or any of its officers or departments shall be placed and signed by the commissioner of central purchasing; and all agreements or contracts for contractual services, other than on construction or repair work on buildings or structures—which contracts come within the jurisdiction of the commissioner of public works—shall be let and signed by the commissioner of central purchasing.

716G. Requisitions.) Any head of a department or the secretary to the mayor, the city clerk, the city treasurer, the superintendent of the house of correction and the civil service commission and all other offices and executive departments shall have the authority to make requisition upon the commissioner of central purchasing for such supplies, materials, equipment or contractual services as may be needed. Such requisitions shall be made on forms to be provided by the commissioner of central purchasing. When any such requisition is made it shall be filled as promptly as possible.

716H. Estimate of requirements.) Upon request by the commissioner of central purchasing it shall be the duty of each official authorized to make requisitions to furnish him with a written estimate of the quantity of any specified supplies, materials, equipment or contractual services that may be needed for the office or department under his jurisdiction or for which he makes requisitions for any period of future time designated by the commissioner of central purchasing.

716I. Stores inventories.) It shall be the duty of every officer and employe who has charge of any supplies, materials, or equipment which are not intended or needed for immediate use but which are stored for future use or disposition, to keep an accurate inventory of the same in the manner which may be prescribed by the commissioner of central purchasing. A report of the amounts of such commodities on hand shall be filed with the chief of the bureau of stores at such times as may be directed and requested by the commissioner of central purchasing.

SECTION 3. All ordinances or portions of ordinances heretofore passed by the city council which authorize any person or official other than the commissioner of central purchasing to purchase, order or let contracts for any supplies, materials or equipment, for or on behalf of the city of Chicago, or to let or enter into any agreement or contract for contractual services, and all ordinances or parts of ordinances relating to such contracts, agreements or purchases, are hereby repealed. Provided that ordinances relating to contracts for the construction or repair of buildings, bridges, structures, streets, subways or pavements or other improvements and the letting of the same by the commissioner of public works or the board of local improvements shall not be hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. All ordinances and portions of ordinances, heretofore passed by the city council, in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed in so far as they conflict with the provisions of this ordinance.

Chairman.

CHICAGO, ILL., November 20, 1931.

To the Committee on Efficiency, Reorganization and Consolidation of the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—On May 6th, the City Council of the City of Chicago, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolution of Alderman Barnet Hodes—

WHEREAS, The Revenue Act of the constitution of the State of Illinois (Section 1, Clause 9, Constitution of 1870) provides that:

"The General Assembly shall provide such revenue as may be needful by levying a tax, by valuation, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her or its property";

and

WHEREAS, It is generally agreed and conceded that real estate, as a commodity, is bearing an unwarranted, disproportionate and unfair portion of the tax burden of the City of Chicago—economists and tax experts stating that real estate bears an amount substantially exceeding 80% of the general property tax and in addition special assessments; and

WHEREAS, Substantial personal property is and has for many years last past been escaping its just, proportionate and lawful tax burden; and

WHEREAS, This situation is in a measure partly responsible for the chaotic financial condition in which Chicago now finds itself, with the imminent danger that there will not be sufficient funds to permit the operation of necessary functions of municipal government and pay the salaries of policemen, firemen and school teachers; and

WHEREAS, This condition, if suffered to continue, will result, as it already has resulted in thousands of cases, in the shattering of real estate values and equities, in the loss of confidence by the investing public in all real estate securities, in the cessation of consequential building operations, in the loss of employment to thousands of our citizens and taxpayers, and is contributing greatly to the prevention of the return to prosperity to Chicago; and

WHEREAS, It is both desirable and necessary for the best welfare of our City and its people that immediate steps be taken to correct this situation; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Committee on Efficiency, Consolidation and Reorganization, be and it is hereby directed to make a comprehensive study of the situation heretofore referred to, proceed to take such evidence as it deems necessary, and to report its conclusions and findings to the City Council at the earliest possible time."

Consistent with the direction of the Resolution, that a comprehensive study be made of the inequality between the tax burden placed upon real estate and personal property and the fiscal problems of the taxing bodies in our County, the Committee held a number of hearings. The Sub-Committee had presented early in its determination for its consideration the minutes of the meetings of the State Tax Commission of the State of Illinois, at its offices in Chicago, Illinois, on the 8th day of January, 1931, in which the Tax Commissioners made the following decision in connection with the demand made upon it, for reassessment of all personal property in Cook County for the year 1929:

"WHEREAS, There has been presented to this Commission a request that the Commission enter an order upon the Assessors of Cook County ordering a reassessment of all personal property in the County for the year 1929, and

WHEREAS, The Commission has held various hearings and heard evidence bearing upon all matters pertaining to said request, and has listened to and considered the arguments of counsel and representatives of the various organizations in regard to such request for reassessment, and after a full consideration of such evidence and arguments, and the Commission being fully advised in the premises, the Commission finds from said evidence (there being no evidence adduced or presented tending to contradict such facts) that the facts pertaining to the personal property situation in Cook County is substantially as follows:

(1) Under the administration of the Trust Departments of the sixty-six state banks and sixteen national banks in Chicago, personal property to a gross total of $4,230,652,706.37 is listed as of December 31st, 1929.

(2) That on December 31st, 1929, Chicago had two hundred and twenty-four banks and deposits of $2,828,980,000.00.

(3) That evidence brought before that Commission tended to prove that the average inventories of the wholesale establishments of Chicago had a gross total in December, 1929, of $281,411,400; that the average merchandise inventories on said date of the retail establishments in Chicago was $269,751,000; that there is outstanding, issued against real estate, $5,700,000 in real estate mortgages and real estate bonds in Cook County; and that the value thereof in 1929 was substantially that amount.

(5) That in December, 1929, the total of manufactured products for the State of Illinois approximated $6,000,000,000.00. As shown by the evidence introduced before your Commission approximately 63% of the value of all manufactured goods produced in Illinois is manufactured and produced in Chicago, and that on this basis Chicago produced in 1929 manufactured products in the amount of $3,788,000,000.00.

(6) That in connection with the manufacturer of these goods certain other items of personal property in the nature of raw material awaiting manufacture, machinery used in the production of the commodity, finished products not as yet delivered, approximated $500,000,000.00.

(7) That there are 14,711 manufacturing companies in Cook County subject to capital stock assessments by the local Board of Assessors, and that the fair cash value of the capital stock of these companies would aggregate as testified before the Commission, at least $400,000,000.00.

(8) That there were in Cook County, automobiles with an actual fair cash value in 1929, in excess of $400,000,000.00.

(9) That it was shown in the testimony also that the full assessed value of actual tax-paying personal property was assessed at $704,000,000.00 in 1918; $521,000,000.00 in 1927, and that in all probability the same would exceed $400,000,000.00 for the year 1928.

(10) The evidence before the Commission showed that there was personal property in Cook County liable to assessment on April 1, 1929, and for many years prior thereto, in excess of $15,000,000,000.00 of which said personal property was for the years 1917 to 1928 and at no time assessed in excess of $900,000,000.00 and as low as $731,000,000.00 in 1928."

The Commission in its finding went on to say that because of the lateness of the application and the fact that the term for collection of the 1929 taxes was nearly one year behind, that it would be impracticable to order a reassessment at that time, and consequently denied the request made. However, from the fiscal determination of the State Tax Commission of Illinois this appalling fact is presented—that although on April 1, 1929, and for many years prior thereto, there was an excess of $15,000,000,000.00 of personal property, at no time was this property assessed at more than $900,000,000.00, and as low as $731,000,000.00 in 1928.

When it is taken into consideration that Section 1, Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Illinois provides that—

"The General Assembly shall provide such revenue as may be needful by levying a tax on valuation so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her or its property", then it becomes evident as a result of the determination of the State Tax Commission that the taxing machinery of Cook County has been operated in flagrant disregard of the Constitutional provisions of "uniformity".

It is unnecessary, at this time, to take into the consideration the criticism that has been made that it is impossible to place personal property upon the assessment rolls, as it is difficult to discover and assess this character of property. The fact remains that billions of dollars' worth of property in Cook County, have escaped taxation, which obviously places a burden upon real estate in proportion progressively greater as in proportion progressively less personal property escapes taxation.

The evidence submitted before the Sub-Committee indicated that there was considerably more than $15,000,000,000.00 of personal property in Cook County subject to taxation, with double taxation omitted.

Mr. Newton C. Farr, former president of the Chicago Real Estate Board, and an outstanding citizen of Chicago, predicated his statement made to the Sub-Committee upon the fact that there was at least thirty billions of dollars of personal property, tangible and intangible, as against ten billions of dollars in real estate in Cook County. Mr. Farr declared that the various estimates indicate this to be a fact two years ago; that although the average value was much less, there was a corresponding difference between real and personal property, which resulted in a maintenance on the level of difference proportionately.

Mr. Farr further declared that although there were thirty billions of dollars in personal property, and ten billions of dollars of real estate, that personal carried only a 15% tax load of the general property tax, and real estate carried 85% of the tax load; that although the source of income in Cook County showed that 90% was obtained from personal property, and 10% from real estate, the source of tax dollars in Cook County indicated that 85% was obtained from real estate and 15% from personal property.

To show the prevailing laxity in the assessment of personal property in Cook County, Mr. Farr pointed out that in the small county of Kane, stock and bonds were assessed in 1928 at a figure of $1,162,054.00, and in Cook County at only $1,130,887.00; that assessment of shares of stock of corporations in this State for 1928 showed an assessment in Kane County of $344,901.00; in Wabash County, $213,200.00; Washington County, $208,166.00; Union County, $56,840.00; Polk County, $28,230.00, and Cook County, $20,680.00; that the total assessment for manufacturers, tools and materials in 1928, in Winnebago County was $6,516,990.00, and in Cook County only $4,450,943.00; that the assessment of stocks of State and National Banks for the same year, 1928, in Winnebago County, was $1,541,936.00, and in Cook County only $174,002.00; that the average per capita value of merchandise assessed for the same year, 1928, in Winnebago County, with a population of 118,301, was $34.92 per capita; and in Cook County, with a population of 3,989,069, was only $5.30 per capita; that the number of automobiles and trucks assessed in Kane County was 18,860 and in Sangamon County, 17,214, in Cook County it was 15,960.

Mr. John O. Rees, Director of Joint Commission on Real Estate Valuation, in commenting upon this glaring inequality of personal property and real estate declared:

"There has been a cumulative degeneration of the personal property tax. The full assessed value of personal property to be taxed in the year 1928 approximated $300,000,000.00 less than the full assessed value of personal property which was taxed for the year 1918; and the total assessment and the amount that is collected has been going down and down. In other words, there was about $700,000,000.00 of personal property that was taxed for the year 1918, and about $400,000,000.00 for the year 1928; that is about 12%, equivalent to about 12% of the real estate taxes. That has the same effect as if the entire townships of Lake View and of Jefferson were left off the assessment rolls entirely."

Mr. Rees concluded with this significant statement: "The difficulty that the Government faces at the present time by reason of the very restricted ability on the part of people to pay their taxes is a very serious matter. It is probably more serious than anything that has happened in the experience of the people in Chicago now living."

Mr. Hayden N. Bell, attorney for the Board of County Commissioners of Cook County, stated:

"I think that personal property now pays 12%, as I understand it. You ought to get thirty-five or forty; that is as high as you can go if you get double taxation out of it, in my opinion.

Cleveland pays thirty-five per cent. They have a unified system down there. They have not got a multiple system with co-ordinate authority. They get thirty-five per cent. I think we should get possibly more. I think we ought to have forty per cent of personal property. You could take all double taxation out of it and then could get enough of it to make thirty-five or forty per cent, and the people who would pay it are the most able to pay, the most able. . . . I just want to say this before I leave that subject: That the easiest thing on that point that I ever saw in my life is to take double taxation out and then everybody return what he has got and pay on it like everybody else. Some of them say, however, that the tax would consume the income from the property; but the head of a family that returns his household property, that makes no income and depreciates faster than any other kind of property, he pays taxes on it, does he not? Well, can't the fellow that has got income-bearing property sort of waddle along and do his part, too? My household stuff does not earn three per cent or two per cent, and it is depreciating all the time. Just make it fair, make personal property taxation fair by law, and then make taxpayers honest by law, if they are not honest otherwise. That settles that part of it.

There is still another gentleman, however, still another animal. He is not roaring any in this human jungle. He is a very quiet gentleman, who can be found in shady spots. He has got his money invested in mortgages and other actually tax-exempt securities, and he rents the flat and pays no taxes, some of them with incomes of millions of dollars a year. It is inconceivable to me that those big fellows should roam this jungle and not be the lodgment for somebody. How did they get by so long? But they are here by the thousands.

Years ago when I was in Jarecki's court, we thought then that there was a law that they had to return, but the Supreme Court knocked it out. A gentleman came in and made a return. He made a return from sixty thousand dollars to one hundred and sixty thousand dollars, a tall, nice gentleman from the 'Gold Coast'. For a week after that, I saw somebody in the crowd every day when I walked out that looked familiar, and I could not imagine who it was. I noticed his eyes would follow me. Finally, I recognized him, or thought I recognized this fellow, and I sort of stopped and he came up to me and he said, 'Mr. Bell, can I amend my returns?' I said, 'Why, yes'. He said, 'I never spent such a ten-day period in my life'. 'Well', I said, 'That is all right. I hope that is all right. Of course you can amend it.' I thought he would make it two hundred thousand dollars. What do you reckon he made it? He made it nine million dollars. Why, those animals are roaming around here, paying no taxes at all. He was a gentleman. I don't apply that term to him because I said to the Court, 'You will have to do something for this man. This is robbery. Nobody else is paying that personal property tax. Some consideration will have to be given him'. I don't know what the court did really, but we tried to fix him up, but that happened."

Mr. Bell also declared, "There is not any reason, ladies and gentlemen, in this world, why those men and those women should not pay their share to sustain the Government, when the common woman and man of labor in this city work and work and save in order to make that constitutional payment."

Professor Simeon E. Leland of the University of Chicago, decried the separate, independent, overlapping and duplicating governmental bodies in Cook County, which he characterized as perhaps the most confusing jungle of political agencies anywhere to be found. He stated, "Within the County of Cook there are some four hundred odd governmental units operating in various fashions. There is within the City of Chicago a seven ring governmental circus with its clowns, its acrobats, its ringmasters, and its rather small menagerie of animals."

He continued: "The big things in the picture is to consolidate the government for the sake of responsibility and efficiency, and then if that process is accompanied by sufficient inquisitorial investigators operating upon the principal of cost accounting, it is quite possible that if the taxpayers then continue their interest substantial sums may be saved."

The excerpts from the evidence presented before the Sub-Committee, referred to above, are indicative in the main of the viewpoints presented by those appearing before the Sub-Committee—

(1) The disparagement between assessment of personal and real property, and

(2) The necessity for consolidation and unification of governmental agencies.

To these two major divisions may be added that it was generally conceded that governmental costs must be strictly watched, so that all "fat" from governmental expenditure would be effectively removed, and that government should run upon the basis of strict economy and efficiency demanded by private business.

There was also called to the Sub-Committee's attention the resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee to devise an equitable method of collecting outstanding real estate taxes, on which definitely indicated that there was a great disproportion between the general tax burden as placed upon personal property and real estate, which resolution is as follows:

"Resolution Authorizing Appointment of a Committee to Devise an Equitable Method of Collecting Outstanding Real Estate Taxes.

(Adopted by the City Council of the City of Chicago October 24, 1931).

"WHEREAS, Section 4, Article 9, of the Constitution of the State of Illinois, provides that

"The General Assembly shall provide such revenue as may be needful by levying a tax by valuation, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her or its property;"

and

WHEREAS, Under the statutes enacted pursuant to said constitutional provisions, real estate is today bearing a tremendously disproportionate share of the burden of general property taxation, estimated at approximately eighty-five per cent (85%); and

WHEREAS, As a result of this disproportionate burden being placed upon real estate, building activities have practically ceased, hundreds of thousands of skilled and unskilled employes are without work, factories and businesses furnishing building materials are without orders, business of every character is keenly effected, rents are disproportionately excessive, foreclosures by the thousands are destroying the equities of the laboring man and the investor, representing in many instances their life savings, real estate securities heretofore considered the soundest and safest investment for the widow and orphan grossly depreciated in value, the savings of the young and old entrusted to the banking institutions, operating under State and Federal regulations, have been taken away by the failure of these institutions, due in a great measure to frozen real estate assets; and

WHEREAS, There is no money to pay the school teachers, firemen, policemen, and other governmental employes, necessary to safeguard the health, life and security of our community; and

WHEREAS, Especially the non-payment of the school teachers has created a picture of abject and dismal misery, reflecting upon the well-being of five hundred thousand (500,000) school children attending the public schools of our community; and

WHEREAS, The financial condition of the taxing bodies in Cook County has become so critical that break down in government is imminent; and

WHEREAS, This condition, if suffered to continue, will create a spectacle in the eyes of the world, to which no metropolitan community in our age has found equal, and appalling condition for Chicago, in view of the approaching Century of Progress; and

WHEREAS, In excess of one hundred and twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000.00) in real estate taxes are today unpaid, because of the continuous and unprecedented over-burdening and discrimination against real estate in Cook County; and

WHEREAS, Litigation pending in the courts covering these outstanding taxes may delay the collection thereof for years; and

WHEREAS, The vast majority of real estate taxpayers in Cook County, who because of their initiative and confidence in the future greatness of Chicago, staked their earnings and resources in the real estate and up-building of this great city, have always been, and are today, willing to contribute their fair and honest share toward the maintenance of government; and

WHEREAS, Real Estate is unable to bear this disproportionate burden of taxation, and is pleading for immediate help and relief, to which it is entitled; and

WHEREAS, Sane and sound business judgment dictates, in view of the facts heretofore recited, that it is for the best interests of all of the people of our community that an immediate fair adjustment be made of these outstanding taxes, which would immediately place millions of dollars at the disposal of the taxing bodies for necessary purposes, and would relieve unemployment and distress; therefore, be it

Resolved, That His Honor, the Mayor of the City of Chicago, is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the City Council, which committee is hereby directed to immediately call a conference of all of the taxing bodies of Chicago and Cook County, and such other persons as in his opinion are necessary, for the purpose of considering and determining a fair and equitable method of collection of the one hundred and twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000.00) outstanding and uncollected in real estate taxes."

From what has been said, the Sub-Committee is convinced that, at the present time, there exists a flagrant inequality in the assessments of real and personal property; that real estate is today bearing a tax load which is crushing its vitality and its tax-paying ability; that real estate bears an amount substantially exceeding 80% of the general property taxes, and in additional special assessments; that billions of dollars worth of personal property is escaping taxation; and that the present taxing machinery is seemingly unable, or unwilling, to place these billions of personal property now escaping taxation on the assessment roll. There is urgent and immediate need of action. It is true that there are a great many who state that it will be impossible even until constitutional changes take place, of placing additional burden on personal property upon the assessment books. This statement is unwarranted from the facts presented before the Sub-Committee. It will, of course, be impossible to place all personal property upon the assessment books, but it is the opinion of the Sub-Committee that billions of dollars worth of personal property can forthwith be placed upon the assessment books if an honest and intelligent effort is made to do so. This must be done if additional foreclosures are to be averted and taxes are once more to be paid by real estate, so that necessary governmental agencies will be able to function. The Sub-Committee realizes that what is necessary is not additional taxes, but the honest and fair balancing of the taxes paid.

As Mr. Robert R. McCormick, in a letter dated October 15, 1931, said to the committee:

"It is obvious that Austria, Australia, New Zealand, Germany and England have been ruined by excessive taxation.

Our own country is headed in the same direction. The remedy is not a three shell game of shifting the burden from one class of taxpayers to another, but a reduction of the burden to a bearable total."

This Sub-Committee, in view of what has been stated in this report presents the following program for emergency and permanent relief from the present tax and fiscal crisis:

1a. That the 1930 taxes be funded in such amount and percentage as legal, the opinion of the Sub-Committee being that it is permissible to fund the entire tax with the exception of the State's portion, and for the payment of outstanding Bond and Interest indebtedness, and/or

1b. That the 1930 real estate tax be horizontally reduced to a fair, equitable and honest basis. The percentage of horizontal reduction should be predicated upon the fact that real estate is paying 85% of the burden of general property taxes, and that the ratio of personal property to real estate in Cook County with double taxation omitted is at least fifteen billions of dollars to ten billions of dollars.

If it should appear that insufficient time remains to make possible recommendations 1a and 1b, then

2a. That the 1931 taxes be funded in such amount and percentage as legal, the opinion of the Sub-Committee being that it is permissible to fund the entire tax with the exception of the State's portion, and for the payment of outstanding Bond and Interest indebtedness; and/or

2b. That the 1931 real estate tax be horizontally reduced to a fair, equitable and honest basis. The percentage of horizontal reduction should be predicated upon the same fact as stated in Recommendation 1b.

3. That in reference to the 1931 quadrennial, all untouched wealth, of which personal property alone is in excess of 15 billion dollars, should be sought and taxed. Every character of personal property which has evaded taxation heretofore should be put on the assessment books, so that real estate can be relieved until the necessary constitutional changes can be made. By placing at least 15 billion dollars in personal property on the assessment rolls, the taxable assessment wealth will approximate at that point a minimum of 25 billion dollars instead of approximately 11 billion dollars as now on the assessment rolls. On this basis of computation, that is, on a 25 billion dollar assessment of wealth and/or with a proportionate reduction to meet present depreciated values real estate would then bear approximately 40% of the total burden of general taxation, and personalty 60%. This obviously immediately would result in a reduction of more than 50% in the tax rate.

4. That it is essential that a crystalized program should be developed immediately to work for a constitutional change which will abolish the present so-called "rule of uniformity" which requires personal property and real estate to be taxed according to its valuation. This abolishment would permit revenue to be raised from other sources—from some of the other sources from which revenue is raised in other states—from income taxes, business licenses, sales taxes, mortgages and security tax, selective sales taxes, excise taxes, luxury taxes, money and credit taxes, corporation franchise taxes and other taxes.

It is not suggested by the Sub-Committee that any special form of taxes heretofore referred to be adopted, but it is insistent that when the so-called "uniformity" is abolished that revenue be sought from other sources and by way of other taxes, as real estate must be relieved of a great deal of its present tax burden.

5. Obviously, along with the campaign to change the constitutional provision and the so-called "rule of uniformity", must commence a campaign for every possible economy in governmental administration to insure the government's being run upon the efficiency, soundness and honesty of private business. Every stimulation should be given to a program to do away with unwarranted over-lapping of governmental agencies, with a view of effecting every possible saving in revenue in this direction.

Respectfully submitted,

The following is said bill as recommended:

A BILL

For an Act providing for a larger measure of local self-government for the City of Chicago and enlarging its charter powers with respect to revenue, taxation, public utilities and police powers.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

SECTION 1. This Act, upon its adoption by the voters in the City of Chicago in the manner provided for herein, shall be in force as a part of the charter of the City of Chicago. It shall be deemed a public Act, and all courts shall take judicial notice of it and of the time of its adoption. For the purpose of determining the relation of this Act to other Acts of the General Assembly, it shall be deemed to have been enacted at the time it shall be adopted by the voters of the City of Chicago. This Act shall be known as the Home Rule Charter of the City of Chicago, and may be designated and referred to by that name in all future legislative enactments.

SECTION 2. The City of Chicago shall continue to be a municipal corporation under the same name and possessed of all of the rights and powers, property and interests of which it was possessed at the time this Act takes effect. The boundaries of the City shall be the boundaries as established at the time this Act takes effect or as such boundaries may be changed thereafter in the manner authorized by law. The City of Chicago shall have the right and power, subject to the restrictions in the Constitution of the State and in this Act contained, to use a corporate seal, to sue and be sued, to have perpetual succession, and in addition to all other rights and powers now held by it, or that may hereafter be granted to it under the Constitution or laws of the State, shall have power and authority to make and enforce all laws and regulations in respect to municipal affairs, subject only to the restrictions and limitations contained in the Constitution of the State or in this Act, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent or restrict the City of Chicago from exercising or consenting to, and the City is hereby authorized to exercise, any and all rights, powers and privileges heretofore or hereafter granted or prescribed by the general laws of the State; provided, that no general law of the State hereafter passed which conflicts with the provisions of this Act shall apply to the City of Chicago so as to annul or cancel any of the powers, rights or privileges of said City granted herein, and any Act of the General Assembly that shall be passed after the adoption of this Act relative to the government of the affairs of the cities of this State in general, or the cities containing a stated number of inhabitants or over, or allowing the formation of new municipal corporations in any part of the State, shall, in the absence of an express declaration of a legislative intent to the contrary, be construed as not applying to or operative within the City of Chicago.

SECTION 3. All Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with the provisions of this Act shall be inoperative within and in regard to the City of Chicago after the adoption of this Act; provided, that nothing in this Act or any section thereof shall be held or construed as affecting, limiting or impairing the right of the legislature to alter, amend, annul, or repeal any or all of the provisions of this Act or to frame a new charter for the City of Chicago when the same is done by an Act of the legislature enacted in conformity with the Constitution of the State and adopted in accordance with the section of said Constitution under which this Act is to be adopted.

SECTION 4. The City of Chicago is hereby authorized to acquire, construct, maintain and operate or sell, whether situated inside or outside of the City or State, any improvement, service, business, utility, enterprise or property which may be acquired, constructed, maintained, operated, or sold by any person, firm, corporation or municipality acting under the laws of the State of Illinois, and said City is also hereby authorized to exercise the fullest measure of local self-government not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of the State of Illinois and to do all things necessary or convenient for carrying out the rights and powers of said City.

SECTION 5. The City of Chicago may exercise each and every of the powers which a municipal corporation might or could exercise under the Constitution of the State of Illinois including the making and enforcing within its limits of all such local, police, sanitary, safety, welfare and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws, and to exercise such jurisdiction outside of its limits in such manner as may be authorized by law. Also to enforce law and promote the public peace, health, safety and welfare of the City of Chicago by the enactment of ordinances, and it may provide punishment for the violation of such ordinances by fine or imprisonment in the House of Correction, or both, as may be provided by general law.

SECTION 6. The City of Chicago shall have the power to levy and collect taxes within said City for corporate purposes in a manner that shall conform to the principles of equality and uniformity prescribed by the Constitution of the State. For that purpose the City Council shall annually, not later than the first quarter of the fiscal year, by ordinance, levy a general tax on all real and personal property not exempt from taxation, for corporate purposes, including general City purposes, school purposes, library purposes, municipal tuberculosis sanitarium purposes, and pension fund purposes, provided that the aggregate of such taxes, exclusive of the amounts levied for the payment of bonded indebtedness and the interest on bonded indebtedness, shall not exceed two and one-half per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property within said City as assessed and equalized according to law. The City Council in such annual levy shall specify the respective amounts levied for the payment of bonded indebtedness and interest on bonded indebtedness, the amount levied for general City purposes, the amount levied for school educational purposes, the amount levied for school building purposes, the amount levied for library purposes, the amount levied for municipal tuberculosis sanitarium purposes and the amounts levied for the various pension and annuity and benefit funds provided for by statute. A certified copy of such ordinance shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk. The County Clerk shall extend upon the collector's warrant all of such taxes so levied, subject to the limitation herein contained, in a single column as the City of Chicago tax. In case the aggregate amount levied, exclusive of the amount levied for the payment of bonded indebtedness and the interest on bonded indebtedness, shall exceed two and one-half per centum of such assessed value, such excess shall be disregarded and the residue only treated as certified for extension. In case of such excess, all items in such tax levy, except that for the payment of bonded indebtedness and the interest on bonded indebtedness, shall be reduced pro rata. The taxes levied shall be collected and enforced in the same manner and by the same officers as State and County taxes, and shall be paid over by the officers collecting the same to the City Treasurer. The City

Treasurer of the City of Chicago shall keep separate funds in conformity to said tax levy, which funds shall be paid out by him upon order of the proper authority for the purposes only for which the same were levied. Such issue in each case shall be authorized by ordinance which shall state the amount of issue and the purpose or purposes for which such bonds or obligations are to be issued. Such ordinance shall not take effect until the same has been approved by a majority of the voters of the City voting thereon at an election held not less than twenty days after the passage of the ordinance. Such bonds or obligations shall be issued in such denominations and bearing such rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum as may be determined by the City Council. The interest thereon shall be payable quarterly or semi-annually as may be determined by the City Council. The said bonds or obligations shall be payable at such time or times, not exceeding twenty years from date of issue and at such place or places and with such conditions as to optional payment before maturity, as the ordinance authorizing the issue may prescribe. The City Council may also borrow money upon temporary funding warrants, for municipal purposes; such money to be repaid not later than the end of the next succeeding fiscal year after the date of issuance of such warrants. Such temporary funding warrants may bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum. No money shall be borrowed on such funding warrants in any one year unless all moneys borrowed on such funding warrants in any prior year have been fully paid. The total amount of funding warrants to be issued any one year, exclusive of warrants issued in anticipation of taxes already levied by the City, shall not exceed two and one-half per centum of the assessed value of taxable property within the City as assessed and equalized according to law for purposes of taxation.

SECTION 8. Until otherwise provided by ordinance, the City of Chicago shall continue to use, for the purpose of assessing and collecting its taxes, the officers, organization and methods provided by law for assessing and collecting taxes within the county of Cook. The City Council shall have authority, subject to approval of a majority of the voters of the City on a referendum, to provide by ordinance for the assessment and collection of taxes for municipal purposes by officers independent from the County of Cook and to fix the manner and method of enforcing the collection of taxes, the lien to be acquired for non-payment of taxes, and the redemption of property sold for non-payment of taxes; provided, that the ordinance fixing the manner of assessing and collecting taxes shall be in conformity with the constitution of the State and shall be substantially the same, as nearly as may be, to the methods prescribed by law for the assessing and collecting of taxes for the County of Cook.

SECTION 9. The City of Chicago may grant franchises for fixed terms, permits or privileges, for the construction and operation of plants or works necessary or convenient for furnishing the City and its inhabitants with transportation, communication.

terminal facilities, water, light, heat, power, refrigeration, storage or any other public utility or service, and may prescribe the terms and conditions of any such grant. It may prescribe by ordinance, approved by a vote of the people, the method of procedure for making such grants, subject to the limitations fixed by the Constitution of the State or otherwise established by law, and the City Council shall by general ordinance establish the procedure for granting to the holder of any existing franchise or grant any grant required for the extension of its facilities ordered by the City or for granting a new franchise or grant for a period not exceeding ten years to replace a franchise or grant about to expire; provided that such procedure ordinance and every ordinance granting any such franchise or grant shall be subject to a referendum to the voters of the City of Chicago. Except as otherwise provided by the constitution of the State or by this Act, every franchise, grant, permit or privilege for the construction, extension, or operation of a public utility shall reserve to the City the right to purchase the property of such utility or find a purchaser therefor upon one year's written notice either at an agreed price or at a price to be determined in the manner to be prescribed in the grant. In fixing in any franchise or grant the price to be paid by the City for any utility, no allowance shall be made for franchise value, good will, going concern, earning power, increased cost of reproduction, severance damage, or increased value of right of way or public property used by the utility.

SECTION 10. The City of Chicago may also grant indeterminate franchises and make re-settlement, amendment or alteration of fixed term franchises for the construction and operation of plants or works necessary or convenient for furnishing the City and its inhabitants with transportation, communication, terminal facilities, water, light, heat, power, refrigeration, storage or any other public utility or service and the extensions thereof; and may prescribe the terms and conditions of any such grant or extension; and may prescribe by ordinance, to be approved by a vote of the people, the method of procedure for making such grants and for requiring extensions of the facilities authorized thereby; subject, however, to the limitations imposed by the Constitution of the State and by this Act.

SECTION 11. The City Council shall have the right and power to regulate by ordinance within the limits of the City all public utilities operating within the limits of said City, and to fix rates and charges for the services rendered by such public utilities within the City. It shall also have right and power to make agreements on behalf of the City with public utilities establishing rates and charges for their services within the limits of the City and fixing and regulating the services to be rendered within the City. The City Council shall also have the right and power to provide by ordinance for acquiring, by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, and for constructing, maintaining, operating and leasing of public utilities within the limits of said City and outside of the limits where utilities operating within the limits extend their operations beyond the limits.

SECTION 12. The police power of the City of Chicago shall extend to the prevention of crime, the preservation of local peace, safety and health, morals, order and comfort, and to the prevention of fraud and extortion within the community, and for this purpose the City Council shall have authority to pass ordinances regulating, licensing requiring bonds, examination, inspection, registration, restraint and prohibition, and to prescribe and enforce reasonable penalties for the violation of such ordinances.

SECTION 13. The City of Chicago shall have the right and power to provide for acquiring, by purchase, condemnation or otherwise property within the limits of said City necessary for public improvements whether required for an improvement to be defrayed by general taxes or by special assessment; and for the purpose of making such improvements it may acquire in the same way property contiguous to and in excess of that required for any such improvement; provided, that all property in excess of the amount required for such improvement shall be offered for sale or lease and sold or leased to the highest responsible bidder within one year after the same is acquired.

SECTION 14. All legal Acts lawfully done by or in favor of the City of Chicago before the adoption of this Act, all fines, penalties and forfeitures incurred or imposed within the said City before this Act is adopted, all causes of action which shall have accrued in favor of the City of Chicago before the adoption of this Act, all taxes and special assessments lawfully levied before this Act takes effect, all ordinances, resolutions, by-laws, orders or rules in force in the City of Chicago at the time this Act takes effect, unless the same is or are inconsistent with this Act or in conflict with the Constitution or laws of the State, shall continue and remain in full force and effect in said City after the adoption of this Act, and may be enforced, pursued or acted upon the same as if this Act had not been adopted, except that, where this Act provides a new or different procedure than heretofore, the new method of procedure shall be substituted for the procedure heretofore provided.

SECTION 15. This Act shall be in force and effect only after the same shall have been submitted for adoption to the legal voters of the City of Chicago and approved by a majority of the voters voting on the proposition as herein provided. The manner of submitting the said Act for adoption shall be as follows:

The City Council of the City of Chicago may by ordinance direct that the question of the adoption of this Act shall be submitted to such legal voters at any general, municipal or special election in and for the entire City to be held not less than thirty days from and after the passage of such ordinance. The City Clerk of the City of Chicago shall promptly certify the passage of such ordinance to the Board of Election Commissioners, and it shall thereupon be the duty of such Board of Election Commissioners to submit the question of the adoption of this Act to such legal voters. The question of the adoption of this Act may also be submitted to such legal voters in the following manner: A petition signed by such legal voters of the City equal in number to at least five per cent of such legal voters of the City voting at the last preceding election for Mayor, praying for the submission of the question of adopting this Act may be filed with the Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the said Board of Election Commissioners to submit the question of the adoption of this Act to such legal voters at the next general, municipal or special election in and for the entire City to be held not less than forty days from and after the filing of such petition. The said Board of Election Commissioners shall give notice of such election by publishing a notice thereof, not less than thirty days prior to such election, in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Chicago.

The ballot to be used at such election in voting upon this Act shall be substantially in the following form:

For the adoption of an Act entitled, "An Act providing for a larger measure of local self-government for the City of Chicago and enlarging its charter powers with respect to revenue, taxation, public utilities and police powers."	YES
	NO

If a majority of the legal voters of the City of Chicago voting thereon shall vote for the adoption of this Act, it shall be thereby and thereupon adopted and be in force and effect in the City of Chicago. If this Act shall fail to be adopted at any time at which it is submitted under the requirements of this section by a majority of such legal voters of the City of Chicago voting thereon, then it may be re-submitted from time to time, if such resubmission shall be directed by an ordinance of the City Council of the City of Chicago or demanded by a petition signed by such legal voters of the City equal in number to at least five per centum of the legal voters of the City of Chicago voting at the last preceding election for Mayor, the procedure for such resubmission to be in all other respects the same as when first submitted. If this Act shall be adopted at any election at which it is submitted under the requirements of this section by a majority of such legal voters of the City of Chicago voting thereon, it shall thereby and thereupon be adopted and be in force in said City of Chicago.

SECTION 16. If the last preceding section, or any subdivision, sentence, or clause thereof, is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional, such decision or holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Act or the remaining portion of the said preceding section which can be given effect without such invalid part.

In the Matter of the Differentiation of Classes of Persons and Property for Purposes of Taxation by Municipalities.

The Committee on Judiciary and State Legislation, to whom had been referred (December 4, 1931, page 1416) a resolution directing the Corporation Counsel to advise the City Council as to whether in his opinion municipalities can legally be empowered by the General Assembly to differentiate classes of persons and property for purposes of taxation, under Sections 9 and 10 of Article IX of the State Constitution, without following the rule of strict uniformity imposed by Sections 1 and 2 of said Article IX, submitted a report recommending the adoption of said resolution.

Alderman O'Grady moved to concur in said report and to adopt said resolution.

No request being made by any two Aldermen present to defer consideration of said report for final action thereon until the next regular meeting, and the question being put, the vote thereon was as follows:

Yeas—Coughlin, Anderson, Jackson, Cronson, Schreiber, Hodes, Sutton, Govier, Rowan, Wilson, Hartnett, O'Grady, Kovarik, Moran, Corr, Morris, Northrup, Pacelli, Cepak, Toman, Bowler, Sloan, Leahy, Kells, Terrell, Clark, Konkowski, Rostenkowski, Keane, Porten, Robinson, Mills, Ross, Moreland, Crowe, Waller, Loescher, Feigenbutz, Nelson, Hoellen, Massen, Williston, Quinn—43.

Nays—Healy—1.

The following is said resolution as adopted:

WHEREAS, It is generally conceded by all students of taxation in Illinois that the so-called Principle of Uniformity—"Levying a tax by valuation, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her or its property", is archaic, obsolete, and not in step with the progress of the times; and

WHEREAS, It is further generally conceded that the removal of this so-called Rule of Uniformity, which in actual practice is really a Rule of Inequity would in some measure do away with general dissatisfaction of our tax system which impairs relative property values, retards business activities, and creates disrespect for the governmental agencies maintained by the fruits of the taxes imposed, all persons who have attacked our present tax system, pointing out specifically that its weakness lies in allowing taxes to be levied by valuation equally upon real and personal property, it being urged that if that rule were not applied to city taxes, a very large proportion of the taxes upon real estate could be shifted to other legitimate sources of revenue at once; and

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of our State provides as follows:

"The General Assembly shall provide such revenue as may be needful by levying a tax, by valuation, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, her or its property, such value to be ascertained by some person or persons, to be elected or appointed in such manner as the General Assembly shall direct, and not otherwise"; and

WHEREAS, Section 9 of Article 9 of our Constitution provides:

"For all other corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to assess and collect taxes; but such taxes shall be uniform in respect to persons and property, within the jurisdiction of the body imposing the same"; and

WHEREAS, If it can be considered legal that the limitations in Sections 1 and 2 of Article 9 apply only to State and County taxes, and that the Rule of Uniformity as to persons and property contained in Sections 9 and 10 of Article 9 applies to classes of persons and property reasonably differentiated for purposes of taxation, the end result obtained would be substantially similar to the passage of a Constitutional amendment changing the so-called Rule of Uniformity, in that the legislature could permit the municipality and/or municipalities to differentiate between lands, buildings, tangible personal property, intangibles, trades, occupations, franchises, licenses, earned income, and unearned incomes, or profits and sales of luxuries and necessities for purposes of taxation; and

WHEREAS, The foregoing thought is a radical departure from the current expression of the constitutional power of the legislature, but if legally possible, would in great measure within a short time permit the lifting of the burden from the home owner, would encourage building operations, giving employment to thousands, would make liquid the assets of banks, would encourage and stimulate the trade of the merchant and manufacturer by providing payrolls, and would act as a stimulant toward the payment by all of their just share of taxes, which would remove the danger of the necessary functions of government ceasing because of non-payment of salaries to school teachers and other public employes; therefore, be it hereby

Resolved, By the City Council of the City of Chicago that the Corporation Counsel be and he is hereby directed to immediately exhaustively examine into this subject matter, and advise the City Council of the legality of the differentiation indicated between the limitations in Sections 1 and 2 of Article 9, and Sections 9 and 10 of Article 9, and that a copy of the opinion of the Corporation Counsel immediately upon its preparation be transmitted to the Finance Committee and the Committee on Efficiency, Reorganization and Consolidation.

Requirement for the Keeping of Vacant Lots Free from Noxious Weeds and Poison Ivy.

The Committee on Judiciary and State Legislation, to whom had been re-referred (December 16, 1931, page 1519) an ordinance requiring the keeping of vacant lots free from noxious weeds and poison ivy, submitted a report recommending the passage of said ordinance.

Alderman O'Grady moved to concur in said report and to pass said ordinance.

No request being made by any two Aldermen present to defer consideration of said report for final action thereon until the next regular meeting, and the question being put, the vote thereon was as follows:

Yeas—Coughlin, Anderson, Jackson, Cronson, Schreiber, Hodes, Sutton, Govier, Rowan, Wilson, Hartnett, O'Grady, Kovarik, Moran, Corr, Morris, Northrup, Pacelli, Cepak, Toman, Bowler, Sloan, Leahy, Kells, Terrell, Clark, Konkowski, Rostenkowski, Keane, Porten, Robinson, Mills, Ross, Moreland, Crowe, Waller, Loescher, Feigenbutz, Nelson, Hoellen, Massen, Williston, Quinn—43.

The following is said ordinance as passed:

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Article I of Chapter 47 (Miscellaneous Health Regulations) of the Revised Chicago Code of 1931.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That Article I of Chapter 47 of the Revised Chicago Code of 1931 be and the same is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section between Sections 2384 and 2385, which new section shall be known as 2384-A and which shall read as follows:

REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY OFFICERS.

MAYOR.

Veto.

Variation of the Zoning Ordinance (No. 2455 N. Kostner Av.).

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, January 22, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your honorable body on January 4, 1932, and appearing on page 1642 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance was allowed Andrew Biedron for the establishment of a candy store at 2455 North Kostner avenue.

My reason for vetoing said ordinance is that I am informed by the Chairman of the Board of Appeals that, according to an opinion written by the Corporation Counsel, the premises referred to and sought to be used for a candy store were shown as a store on the original plans when the building was constructed in 1916; that such premises were arranged and designed for a store; that they were thereafter used for a store; that their use for store purposes was never abandoned by the owner; and that, therefore, under the provisions of the zoning ordinance, the owner of the property is entitled to use the premises for a candy store at the present time without the necessity of any variation being granted by the City Council. The above ordinance therefore becomes unnecessary and redundant legislation.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

Alderman Toman moved to reconsider the vote by which said vetoed ordinance was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Alderman Toman moved to place said ordinance on file.

Variations of the Zoning Ordinance (No. 4641 Indiana Av.; No. 828 Loomis St.; No. 6357 S. Morgan St.; No. 1917 W. 62nd St.).

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, January 22, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, the following ordinances passed by your honorable body on January 4, 1932:

An ordinance appearing on page 1641 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed for the establishment of a delicatessen store in an Apartment District in the basement of an existing apartment building at 4641 Indiana avenue;

An ordinance appearing on pages 1643 and 1644 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed for the establishment of a retail store in an Apartment District at 828 Loomis street;

An ordinance appearing on page 1650 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed to maintain a tailor shop in the basement of an apartment building in an Apartment District at 6357 South Morgan street;

An ordinance appearing on pages 1650 and 1651 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed to maintain a retail food shop in an Apartment District at 1917 West 62nd street.

My reason for vetoing the above ordinances is that I am advised by the Chairman of the Board of Appeals that public hearings, after notice, were held by the Board of Appeals on the applications for variations embodied in the above ordinances, and that the Board of Appeals, after such public hearings, concluded that such variations should not be granted and so reported to your honorable body.

While I realize that your honorable body has the authority, under the law, to adopt by a two-thirds vote variations which fail to receive the approval of the Board of Appeals, yet in my judgment such power should be very sparingly exercised, and then only when there is no doubt whatsoever of the propriety of doing so.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE,

To the Honorable Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled;

GENTLEMEN—I am presenting herewith an ordinance which will permit the purchase by the City's Aggregate of Funds of any amount of Board of Education tax warrants, in a total of not to exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000.00), provided that the seller of such tax warrants to the City will, in turn, purchase twice the amount so sold to the City, from the City, of 1930 Corporate Purposes tax warrants.

The Board of Education tax warrants being purchased from this firm, known as the Associated Bond and Shares Corporation, have recently been issued by the Board of Education. Therefore, the Board of Education will have this amount of funds available for Educational and School Building Purposes. Under the circumstances, in case of a maximum purchase of $10,000,000.00 of Board of Education tax warrants by the City, this firm will purchase $20,000,000.00 of City of Chicago 1930 tax warrants. To remedy this situation, we have prepared draft of an ordinance which eliminates various cab stands and adds two motor bus stands as follows:

Cab Stand No. 5. This was repealed prior to the passage of the 1931 code by an ordinance passed January 10, 1931, Council Journal of that date, page 4334.

Cab Stand No. 44. This was repealed prior to the passage of the 1931 code by an ordinance passed June 14, 1929, Council Journal of that date, page 501.

In the Matter of Litigation to Compel Certain Railroads to Provide Adequate Passenger Stations and to Electrify Their Passenger Terminals and Lines through South Side Suburban Zones.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Corporation Counsel, which was referred to the Committee on Railway Terminals:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, January 14, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—On August 12, 1930, proceedings were instituted before the Illinois Commerce Commission by the Tribune Company against the Chicago and North Western Railway Company and other railroads, for the purpose of compelling the defendant railroads to provide adequate passenger stations and electrify their passenger terminals and lines through south side suburban zones. Certain improvement associations were permitted to intervene as interested parties.

Since the filing of the complaint and the present time, little progress has been made in the case, and now the Tribune Company is unwilling to further carry the financial burden of the litigation. It has accordingly, by an order entered January 12, 1932, secured the dismissal of the case without prejudice and with the right given to have it restored to the docket on 60 days notice.

The City of Chicago did not intervene in the case and no instructions have been given by your honorable body to this department, and no suggestions have been received from any council committee to take steps to intervene.

This letter is written to inform your honorable body of the status of the case and the nature of the dismissal order which permits restoration on notice. Should the council regard the litigation of value to it in the solution of railway terminal problems and conclude to take up the case the Tribune Company, through its attorneys, signifies its willingness to file a motion to restore the case to the docket and thus permit the City to intervene and take up the burden of carrying on the case.

Very truly yours,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

In the Matter of the Dismissal of Certain Suits Affected by the "Experts' Fees Suits".

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Corporation Counsel, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and State Legislation:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, January 14, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

In re: Litigation involving refund of expert fees.

GENTLEMEN—In The Tribune Company v. Faherty, 345 Ill. 439, the Supreme Court of Illinois decided the last phase of the case involving the expert fees paid by the City during the year 1920 in connection with certain local improvements in the development of the Chicago Beautiful plan. In that case, as in the previous case against William Hale Thompson and others, the Supreme Court held that payment of fees to Edward C. Waller, Jr., and others was lawful, and reversed the decree of Judge Friend which ordered Waller and others to refund to the City millions of dollars in fees collected by them.

There are pending in our local courts two collateral cases arising out of the decree entered by Judge Friend. One of these cases is that of The Northern Trust Company v. Central Trust Company of Illinois, Superior Court No. 536683, involving a partition of certain real estate in which Edward C. Waller, Jr., has an interest. The City of Chicago entered its appearance in this case because of the lien which it had against the interest of Edward C. Waller, Jr., by virtue of the decree entered by Judge Friend.

A garnishment suit was also instituted by the City of Chicago against The Northern Trust Company and others, administrators of the estate of Edward C. Waller, deceased, in which Edward C. Waller, Jr., has an interest. This suit is pending in the Circuit Court as Case No. B-75205.

In view of the recent decision of the Supreme Court referred to, the suit involving the partition of real estate should be dismissed as to the City of Chicago, and the garnishment suit should be dismissed by the City. We therefore respectfully request that you authorize the corporation counsel to enter into stipulations with the attorneys of record in these cases to effect such dismissals without further costs.

Respectfully yours,

Second Assistant Corporation Counsel.

"WHEREAS, An agreement has been made between the City of Chicago and The Sanitary District of the City of Chicago to build an intercepting sewer system on the south side, (Council Proceedings, October 10, 1928), which said agreement has seemingly been abandoned, although an intercepting sewer system is now needed more than ever, as each succeeding year the volume of water is definitely and progressively increasing, and due to the many local improvements in the district served by this system, it is a common occurrence now during the heavy rains to have the sewer system fill up 8 feet to 12 feet within an hour with all pumps in operation, a condition which engineers have stated cannot continue without serious impairment and hurt to property and life in the district";

and

WHEREAS, The Engineer of the Board of Local Improvements stated recently:

"That the West Suburban towns which are placed on the proposed Sanitary District development program at a more remote date than the South Side projects are carrying out an aggressive campaign to have their projects advanced to an early construction date.

According to the press reports, a bill is being introduced in the legislature authorizing the immediate issuance of bonds without a referendum to allow their improvement to be constructed starting next year. If this legislation is secured by the West Suburban towns and nothing is done for the South Side, the development of the South Side improvements may be delayed even longer than the original program contemplated. If the proposed legislation included provisions for both the West Side and South Side projects, the South Side improvements might be advanced ahead of the dates contemplated in the original program";

and

WHEREAS, It is essential that the sewer project contemplated for the South Side be not materially delayed, as delay places in danger the health conditions of hundreds of thousands of men, women and children of a territory of 11 square miles in Chicago; it is hereby

Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel be and he is hereby directed to immediately take steps to prevent any changes in the development program of the Sanitary District by the passage of enabling legislation in reference to the substitution of priority for districts other than that stated in the original program; it is further

Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel be and he is hereby instructed to present at once a full analysis of the entire situation to the Committee on Special Assessments.

WHEREAS, There is no reason why religious institutions in Cook County should be treated any differently than such institutions through other parts of our State; it is hereby

WHEREAS, On September 25, 1929, the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, upon the request of the Chicago Plan Commission, submitted a recommendation and ordinance for the opening and widening of Devon avenue and other streets between Milwaukee avenue and Avondale avenue which ordinance was unanimously passed by the City Council of the City of Chicago and pursuant to the provisions of said ordinance condemnation proceedings were instituted by the City of Chicago October 16, 1929, which case is still pending in the Superior Court of Cook County as is also a case filed July 25, 1929, for the condemnation of right of way for opening Devon avenue from Avondale avenue west to the City limits; and

WHEREAS, Devon avenue, one of the most important east and west streets on the North Side of the City, is open and paved continuously for practically its whole length, from Sheridan road west to its intersection with Higgins road, a distance of over twelve miles, with the exception of the sections mentioned which together approximate one and one-half miles; and

WHEREAS, The Board of County Commissioners of Cook County did on March 12, 1930, direct that a pavement over said section of Devon avenue be laid as soon as right of way had been acquired and for that purpose has let a contract for a portion of said pavement; and

WHEREAS, Since the institution of the condemnation proceedings first mentioned it has become the policy of the County of Cook to acquire right of way on certain roads of major importance by purchase with funds derived from Motor Fuel Tax, and Devon avenue, by reason of its great importance as an east and west thoroughfare and the fact that it offers a completely paved route available for immediate use, when this gap shall have been completed, is the most logical street on which such funds should be expended; and Alderman Coughlin in the Chair.

The City Clerk called the roll of members, and there was found to be No quorum present.

The City Clerk presented the following veto messages submitted by Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, consideration of which was deferred:

Veto.

Commissioner of Public Works: Direction to Take Title to Certain Condemned Land at E. 47th St. and Lake Park Av. (47th St. Subway).

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, February 2, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, an order passed by your honorable body on January 28, 1932, and appearing on page 1722 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, whereby the Commissioner of Public Works and the City Comptroller are directed to take title to certain property at the corner of East 47th street and Lake Park avenue for purposes of the 47th street subway.

My reason for vetoing said order is that I am advised that the South Park Commissioners have indicated that they will not undertake the work of the improvement at the present time, which under the lake front ordinance of 1919 is to be done by said commissioners, and inasmuch as the said commissioners have indicated that they intend to delay indefinitely the making of said improvements, it would not be advisable for the City at the present time to expend the money necessary to secure the property involved in condemnation proceedings which are about to be closed.

In view of the situation I recommend that the vote by which said order was passed be reconsidered and that the matter be re-referred to the Committee on Finance for the purpose of investigating and determining whether it will be possible to secure the completion of this improvement before the opening of the Century of Progress Exposition in 1933.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

Installation of Curb Pumps for the Sale of Gasoline, Etc.: Requirement for the Filing of Consents on the Basis of Frontages in Lieu of Areas.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, February 1, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your honorable body on January 28, 1932, and appearing on page 1729 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, whereby paragraphs (c) and (d) of Section 1 of an ordinance passed November 18, 1931, were amended by changing the frontage consent requirements for the installation of tanks for the storage of flammable liquids from "square feet" to "front feet".

My reason for vetoing said ordinance is that it does not conform to all the necessary requirements in that it fails to specify the section of the Revised Chicago Code of 1931 it seeks to amend, which is Section 2670.

I am, therefore, presenting herewith a substitute ordinance to amend said Section 2670, prepared by the Corporation Counsel, the purpose and intent of which, however, is the same as the ordinance vetoed, that is, to make said Section 2670 as to frontage consents for tanks for flammable liquids conform to Section 3274 covering similar subject-matter.

In said substitute ordinance there is also included an additional amendment of Section 2670, the enactment of which, I am advised by the Corporation Counsel, is necessary to make said Section 2670 agree with Section 3274 in reference to the distance tanks for flammable liquids must be removed from a school, hospital, church or theatre.

At the present time paragraph (d) of Section 2670 provides as follows:

"No such tank or tanks shall be installed in any lot or lot of ground where any of the boundaries of any such lot or plot of ground are within 100 feet of the nearest boundary of any lot or plot of ground used for a school, hospital, church or theatre."

On the other hand, Section 3274 provides:

"No such tank or tanks shall be installed in any lot or plot of ground where any of the boundaries of any such lot or plot of ground are within 200 feet of the nearest boundary of any lot or plot of ground used for a school, hospital, church or theatre."

It will be seen that these two sections are inconsistent and that they should be made to conform with each other.

If your honorable body enacts the substitute ordinance herewith attached then the provisions of Section 2670 and Section 3274 of the Revised Chicago Code of 1931 will be uniform as to frontage consent requirements for the installation of tanks for flammable liquids and as to the distance such tanks shall be removed from a school, hospital, church or theatre.

I, therefore, respectfully recommend that the vote by which the said ordinance was adopted be reconsidered and that the substitute ordinance presented herewith be passed by your honorable body without the usual reference to a committee as it is important that the provisions of the City ordinances as to the installation of tanks for flammable liquids be consistent and uniform and that the public be promptly advised of such requirements.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

Amendment of the Zoning Ordinance (Area Bounded by E. 58th St.; South Park Way; a Line 100 Feet
South of E. 58th St.; and a Line 345
Feet West of South Park Way).

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, February 3, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your honorable body on January 28, 1932, and published on page 1743 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, which amends the zoning ordinance by changing all the Apartment District symbols and indications shown on Use District Map No. 31, in the area bounded by East 58th street; South Park Way; a line 100 feet south of East 58th street; and a line 345 feet west of South Park Way, to those of a Commercial District.

My reason for vetoing said ordinance is that I am in receipt of a letter from the Chairman of the Board of Appeals which contains the following:

"The proposed amendment which embraces all of the block between Calumet avenue and South Park Way on the south side of East 58th street for 100 feet to the south of East 58th street, with the exception of about 30 feet adjacent to Calumet avenue, seeks to change the zoning from an Apartment to a Commercial District, notwithstanding that all the property included in said amendment is now improved with three-story apartment buildings.

"It is true that there are four basement stores in the apartment building at the southwest corner of South Park Way and East 58th street, the change of the zoning of which is included in the proposed amendment, but such stores were established there in violation of the provisions of the zoning ordinance.

"In my opinion the said amendment weakens rather than strengthens the zoning ordinance, especially as there is plenty of territory zoned for commercial purposes immediately west of the block which it is sought to change from an Apartment to a Commercial District.

"I respectfully recommend that the ordinance be vetoed in the interest of proper zoning administration."

Yours truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

Variations of the Zoning Ordinance (No. 3336 Lowe Av. and No. 9924 S. State St.).

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, February 3, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, the following ordinances passed by your honorable body on January 28, 1932:

An ordinance appearing on page 1744 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed for the establishment of an addition to the front of a store and apartment building located at No. 3336 Lowe avenue, which would violate the Use District and the building line regulations of the zoning ordinance.

An ordinance appearing on pages 1745 and 1746 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed for the establishment of a retail food shop in an Apartment District at No. 9924 South State street, which would violate the use district regulations of the zoning ordinance.

My reason for vetoing the above ordinances is that I am advised by the Chairman of the Board of Appeals that public hearings, after notice, were held by the Board of Appeals on the applications for variations embodied in the above ordinances, and that the Board of Appeals, after such public hearings, concluded that such variations should not be granted and so reported to your honorable body.

While I realize that your honorable body has the authority, under the law, to adopt by a two-thirds vote variations which fail to receive the approval of the Board of Appeals, yet in my judgment such power should be very sparingly exercised, and then only when there is no doubt whatsoever of the propriety of doing so.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

There being no quorum present, Alderman Cepak thereupon moved that the Council do now adjourn.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

Amendment of the Provisions Regulating Frontage Consents for Undertaking Establishments.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Acting Corporation Counsel:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, February 10, 1932.]

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—It has been called to the attention of this department that the frontage consent provisions for undertaking establishments, as they now appear in Sections 1688 and 3797, are conflicting, Section 1688 calling for such consents of property owners in any block in which two-thirds of the buildings on both sides of the street are used for residence purposes, while Section 3797 calls for such frontage consents when only one-third of the buildings on both sides of the street are used for residence purposes.

This conflict arose through the inadvertent inclusion in the Revised Chicago Code of 1931 of Section 931 of The Chicago Municipal Code of 1922, which had not been amended according to the terms of an ordinance passed on June 3, 1925 (Council Journal of that date, page 492) which amendment, however, did change the provision of another section (relating to the same subject matter) from two-thirds to one-third.

Inasmuch as it was through error that the latest expression of the council, as contained in the amendment of June 3, 1925, was omitted from the 1931 code, we have prepared and transmit herewith draft of an ordinance changing the frontage consent provisions of Section 1688 of the Revised Chicago Code of 1931 to conform to those in Section 3797 which correctly states the requirements as heretofore set forth by the City Council.

So that the public may be advised as speedily as possible as to the correct requirements, we respectfully urge that this matter be passed without the delay necessarily incident to its reference to a committee.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

RUTH C. NELSON,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Recommendation for the Dismissal of Condemnation Proceedings to Acquire Certain Lands for Construction of a Subway in E. 47th St. under the I. C. R. R.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Acting Corporation Counsel, which was, together with the resolution submitted therewith, referred to the Committee on Finance:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
BOARD OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS,
CHICAGO, February 9, 1932.]

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Re: Recommendation to dismiss City of Chicago condemnations for land necessary for the construction of a subway in East 47th street under the Illinois Central tracks.

GENTLEMEN—At a meeting of the City Council of the City of Chicago held on November 25, 1930 (page 4052 of the Journal of Council Proceedings), ordinances were adopted directing that proceedings be instituted to condemn a certain portion of the northeast and southeast corners, respectively, of East 47th street and Lake Park avenue, said portions of said lots being required for the construction of a subway improvement in East 47th street under the Illinois Central Railroad tracks. These ordinances were adopted by the City Council of the City of Chicago pursuant to the terms of the "Lake Front Ordinance" adopted on July 12, 1919, (page 969 of the Journal of Council Proceedings). In and by said "Lake Front Ordinance" it was agreed by and between the City of Chicago and the South Park Commissioners that the City should acquire the land necessary for the said 47th street subway improvement and that the South Park Commissioners should construct the said subway improvement proper.

It was further provided that the City of Chicago should pay any damages to property occasioned by the actual land taking and that the South Park Commissioners should, in addition to paying the cost of the construction work involved, pay any damages, if any, occasioned by said construction work.

Pursuant to the said ordinances adopted by your Honorable Body on November 25, 1930, the Corporation Counsel instituted proceedings in the Circuit Court of Cook County as follows:

Docket B-212233—City of Chicago, a municipal corporation, vs. Thomas Ingle Underwood and Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company, a corporation, (Trustees under last will and testament of Wallace L. DeWolf, deceased), et al;

Docket B-212232—City of Chicago, a municipal corporation, vs. Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank (Trustee, under last will and testament of Adam Sommer, deceased), et al.

When the above cases came on for trial, the legal representatives of the City of Chicago communicated with the South Park Commissioners and continually besought the co-operation of that body in prosecuting said condemnation cases to a conclusion. Both cases have come on regularly for trial and verdicts have been returned in each case. In the Underwood case, which involves the northeast corner of East 47th street and Lake Park avenue, the verdict awards compensation in the sum of $141,375.00. In the Continental Bank case, involving the southeast corner of East 47th street and Lake Park avenue, the verdict awards compensation in the sum of $102,772.00. Both of these verdicts include all damage suffered by the respective corners, both by reason of the actual taking and by reason of damages to be anticipated because of the subway construction, and each verdict should therefore be apportioned between the South Park Commissioners and the City of Chicago.

Since these two verdicts were returned, the South Park Commissioners have all along refused to accept any liability or any responsibility for any portion of the damages awarded. At a meeting of the South Park Commissioners held on Saturday, January 23, 1932, I presented a formal request that said commissioners take steps leading to some suitable division of the verdicts in question, and at the meeting the various individual members of the South Park Board expressed their opinion that the present proceedings should not be carried further. They finally adopted a resolution as follows:

"It was moved by Commissioner Graver, seconded by Commissioner Lindheimer, that, because of the present financial embarrassment of the South Park Commissioners and the consequent inability to proceed with this improvement, or any other, negotiations and litigation relative to the subway improvement in East 47th street and Lake Park avenue be temporarily postponed until such time as this Board is in such financial position as will enable it to proceed with its contemplated improvements."

Following the adoption of the above resolution by the Board, the Honorable Edward J. Kelly, President of said South Park Commissioners, on February 4, 1932, addressed and sent to me a letter as follows:

"DEAR SIR—Supplementing the letter dated January 25, 1932, addressed to you from Mr. M. E. Connelly, our Secretary, I desire to suggest that inasmuch as the South Park Commissioners are not in a position financially to proceed with the construction of the 47th street subway improvement at the present time, and since it is impossible to now estimate when said improvement can be constructed, it is my opinion that the City of Chicago should proceed to dismiss the pending condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of private property at the northeast and southeast corners of East 47th street and Lake Park avenue, which property is sought to be taken for the making of the subway improvement in question.

"When conditions improve so as to enable the City and the South Park Commissioners to again proceed with this improvement, it would be my suggestion that these proceedings be instituted anew.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

EDWARD J. KELLY,
President."

At a meeting of the City Council of the City of Chicago held on January 28, 1932, an order was passed having reference to the above improvement, in which order the following appears:

"* * * therefore, be it

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works and the City Comptroller be and they are hereby directed to take title in the name of the City of Chicago to these two pieces of property;
* * *"

On February first I addressed a letter to the Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor of the City of Chicago, calling his attention to the order adopted by your body and last hereinabove quoted, and respectfully recommended to him that he veto said order for the same reasons as are contained in this letter to your Honorable Body.

The City of Chicago has no need whatever for the property involved in these two condemnation proceedings except to make it available for the needs and uses of the South Park Commissioners in connection with the construction of the subway aforesaid. Inasmuch as the South Park Commissioners have definitely recorded their resolution not to proceed with the making of the improvement in question, it is my opinion that the pending condemnation cases should be dismissed. If and when said condemnation cases are dismissed, the City of Chicago will be held liable for whatever damages the property owners have been occasioned by reason of the institution of said suits. These damages, however, will not be substantial in comparison with the total amount involved, which total amount is in excess of $243,000.00.

I therefore beg to respectfully recommend that your Honorable Body adopt a resolution authorizing and directing the Corporation Counsel to dismiss said condemnation cases (Circuit Court B-212233 and B-212232 hereinabove referred to). For your convenience I submit herewith a suggestion for the form of said resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) IRVIN ROOKS,
Attorney, Board of Local Improvements.

BUILDINGS AND ZONING.

Variation of the Zoning Ordinance (No. 5965 Iowa St.).

The Committee on Buildings and Zoning, to whom had been referred (January 28, 1932, page 1699) a resolution adopted by the Board of Appeals on the subject of a variation of the regulations of the "zoning ordinance" affecting the premises known as No. 5965 Iowa street, submitted a report recommending the passage of an ordinance submitted therewith.

Alderman Crowe moved to concur in said report and to pass said ordinance.

Nays—None.

The following is said ordinance as passed:

WHEREAS, On January 21, 1932, the Board of Appeals adopted the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, John Booker, owner, filed December 18, 1931, an application under the zoning ordinance to permit, in an Apartment District, the erection of a gas-filling station, on premises at No. 5965 Iowa street; and

WHEREAS, A public hearing was held on this application by the Board of Appeals at its regular meeting held on January 7, 1932, after due notice by publication in the Chicago Evening Post of December 23, 1931; and

WHEREAS, The proposed building is to be located in an Apartment District and would violate the Use District regulations of the zoning ordinance; and

WHEREAS, The Commissioner of Buildings on December 18, 1931, in acting upon the said application rendered the following decision:

'Application not approved. Proposed improvement does not conform with requirements of zoning ordinance';

and

WHEREAS, The Board of Appeals, having fully heard the testimony and arguments of the parties and being fully advised in the premises, finds that in this case the premises affected were formerly occupied as a plasterer's equipment yard which is a non-conforming M1 use; that under the terms of the zoning ordinance a non-conforming use may be changed to a more restricted use; that the proposed use of the premises, to wit: a gas-filling station, is a C use and, therefore, a more restricted use, that as the use of the premises for a filling station, including the erection of a building to be used in connection therewith will eliminate the present M use and cause the premises to be devoted to a more restricted use, and that therefore the applicant should be granted permission to erect the gas-filling station proposed on the premises under Section 28 of the zoning ordinance,

Resolved, That the Board of Appeals by virtue of the authority conferred upon it does hereby recommend that the City Council enact the following ordinance:

'Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the regulations imposed and the districts created by an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance establishing a plan for dividing the City of Chicago into districts for the purpose of regulating the location of trades and industries and of buildings and structures designed for dwellings, apartment houses, trades, industries and other specified uses, for regulating the height, volume and size of buildings and structures, and intensity of use of lot areas, for determining building lines, and for creating a board of appeals", passed by the City Council of the City of Chicago on April 5, 1923, approved April 16, 1923, and published on pages 2396 to 2515, both inclusive, of the printed Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council, as amended, be and the same are hereby varied in conformity with the findings and recommendations contained in the resolution passed by the Board of Appeals of the City of Chicago on January 21, 1932.

WHEREAS, Many of the approved plans for track elevation of the steam railroads in the City of Chicago have permitted depression of the City streets, thus creating so-called Subways, without proper provision for taking care of the drainage and the storm water; and

WHEREAS, Since 1925 there have been 1,124 interruptions to street railway service and other vehicular traffic including in many cases the pedestrian traffic, aggregating a total interruption of traffic in these subways during this period of 4,359 hours, due to the flooding of said subways during rain storms; and

WHEREAS, These conditions also exist on many other streets in subways where there are no street railway tracks including the flooding of the homes of many of our people; and

WHEREAS, All of our working people, the traveling public and business in general thereby suffer great inconvenience and loss in time and money; and

WHEREAS, These flooded conditions are injurious to the public health; and

WHEREAS, These flooded conditions are becoming worse due to new buildings, sidewalks and pavements covering up most of the surface soil (which formerly absorbed a portion of the rainfall) thereby increasing the run-off and causing water to enter the sewers more rapidly; and

WHEREAS, These conditions indicate that the catchbasins in the subways are not clean, and/or the sewer system and pumping plants are inadequate to handle the storm waters, and/or that the streets have been unnecessarily depressed; now, therefore, be it

A quorum present.

Invocation.

Rev. Ralph Wakefield, Pastor of Englewood First Methodist Episcopal Church, opened the meeting with prayer.

In the Matter of the Financial Plight of Local Governing Bodies.

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, made a statement to the City Council concerning the bad financial condition of the local governing bodies, particularly with reference to the City of Chicago and the Board of Education, asserting the impossibility of selling tax anticipation warrants, and stating that the investing power of the City's aggregate of funds is exhausted, all current receipts from licenses, permits and miscellaneous services being required for the reimbursement of certain depleted special funds in the nature of trust funds; it being his opinion that, if the General Assembly carried out a proposed plan to adjourn for sixty days without first passing further legislation for local financial relief, drastic layoffs of City employees would have to ensue immediately.

Aldermen Clark, Waller, Quinn, O'Grady, Nelson and Arvey thereupon addressed the Council on the subject-matter of the Mayor's statement.

As a result of statements made during the course of the addresses, Aldermen Nelson, Arvey and Clark arose to questions of personal privilege and addressed the Council thereon.

Direction to the Committee on Judiciary and State Legislation to Give Consideration to Pending Proposals for Local Financial Relief.

Alderman Quinn thereupon moved that the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary and State Legislation call a meeting of said Committee for Thursday, February 18, 1932, at 2:00 o'clock P. M. in the council chambers for the purpose of taking up this question of legislation in Springfield and any other matters to bring relief to the unpaid employes of the City of Chicago and the Board of Education.

After debate, Alderman O'Grady moved to amend by striking out the language "Thursday, February 18, 1932, at 2:00 o'clock P. M.", and by inserting in lieu thereof the language "Friday, February 19, 1932, at 10:00 o'clock A. M."

The motion prevailed.

The question being put on the motion as amended, the motion prevailed.

Request to the General Assembly to Remain in Session Until the Enactment of Necessary Legislation for Relief of Chicago's Financial Plight.

By unanimous consent, Alderman Waller presented the following resolution:

Be it Resolved, By the City Council, that the General Assembly be urged not to adjourn without passing legislation to permit tax payments on account of future taxes to be accepted by the County Treasurer and to determine dates for future tax payments, and other necessary legislation.

Unanimous consent was given to permit action on said resolution without reference thereof to a committee.

Alderman Waller moved to adopt said resolution.
The motion prevailed.

Alderman O'Grady moved that the Corporation Counsel be instructed to prepare a telegram embodying the substance of the foregoing resolution and that the City Clerk be directed to forward such telegram to each house of the General Assembly.

The motion prevailed.

In the Matter of Effecting the Payment of Delinquent Real Estate Taxes for the Years 1928 and 1929.

By unanimous consent, Alderman Clark presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, There are numerous delinquent taxpayers for the years 1928 and 1929, many of them being financially able to make payment and many contesting the levy of taxes for those two years, thereby creating a situation wherein the local governments are no longer able to function properly to protect life, health and property;

Therefore, in order to ascertain whether the delinquents are small property-owners or owners of large holdings, be it

Resolved, That the Committee on Finance be and it is hereby directed to make an effort to obtain this information and report same to the City Council, in an effort to force those who can pay a fair tax to pay it.

Unanimous consent was given to permit action on said resolution without reference thereof to a committee.

Alderman Clark moved to adopt said resolution.
The motion prevailed.

REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY OFFICERS.

MAYOR.

Veto.

"Parking" Restrictions on E. 59th St.

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.
CHICAGO, February 17, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your honorable body on February 10, 1932, and appearing on page 1789 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, whereby vehicles are prohibited from standing on 59th street between Dorchester and Blackstone avenues.

My reason for vetoing said ordinance is that I am advised by the Corporation Counsel that in the form it is drafted it is not valid because there is nothing that appears in the ordinance which gives any reason for establishing this restriction at the particular place as distinguished from any other place in the City, and therefore such an ordinance would be void as constituting an unlawful discrimination.

I am also informed that it would be unlawful to prohibit the standing of a vehicle at any time as is provided for in said ordinance because it would prevent access to and from the property along said street which would be contrary to the constitutional rights of the owners of such property. It was undoubtedly the intention of the Council that there should be no parking, but as worded the ordinance prohibits a vehicle from stopping there to take on or let off a passenger which is an entirely different matter from parking as defined in the traffic ordinance.

I therefore recommend that the vote by which the said ordinance was passed be reconsidered and that the same be referred to the Committee on Traffic and Public Safety for further consideration.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

Alderman Bowler moved to reconsider the vote by which said vetoed ordinance was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Alderman Bowler moved to refer said ordinance to the Committee on Traffic and Public Safety.

The motion prevailed.

Veto.

"Parking" Restrictions on University Av.

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, February 17, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your honorable body on February 10, 1932, and appearing on page 1790 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, whereby owners of vehicles are prohibited from standing such vehicles on the east side of University avenue north of 59th street.

My reason for vetoing said ordinance is that I am advised by the Corporation Counsel that in the form it is drafted it is not valid because there is nothing that appears in the ordinance which gives any reason for establishing this restriction at the particular place as distinguished from any other place in the City, and therefore such an ordinance would be void as constituting an unlawful discrimination.

I am also informed that it would be unlawful to prohibit the standing of a vehicle at any time as is provided for in said ordinance because it would prevent access to and from the property along said street, which would be contrary to the constitutional rights of the owners of such property. I therefore recommend that the vote by which the said ordinance was passed be reconsidered and that the same be referred to the Committee on Traffic and Public Safety for further consideration.

Yours very truly,

Mayor.

Alderman Bowler moved to reconsider the vote by which said vetoed ordinance was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Alderman Bowler moved to refer said ordinance to the Committee on Traffic and Public Safety.

The motion prevailed.

Veto.

Variation of the Zoning Ordinance (No. 1400 N. Leamington Av.).

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, February 17, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval an ordinance passed by your honorable body on February 10, 1932, and appearing on page 1812 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed for the establishment of a retail food shop at No. 1400 North Leamington avenue.

My reason for vetoing said ordinance is that I am advised by the chairman of the Board of Appeals that a public hearing, after notice, was held by the Board of Appeals on the application for the variation embodied in the above ordinance, and that the Board of Appeals, after such public hearing, concluded that such variation should not be granted and so reported to your honorable body.

While I realize that your honorable body has the authority, under the law, to adopt by a two-thirds vote variations which fail to receive the approval of the Board of Appeals, yet in my judgment such power should be very sparingly exercised, and then only when there is no doubt whatsoever of the propriety of doing so.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

Alderman Cronson moved to reconsider the vote by which said vetoed ordinance was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Alderman Cronson moved to re-refer said ordinance to the Committee on Buildings and Zoning.

The motion prevailed.

Veto.

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I herewith return, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your honorable body on February 10, 1932, and appearing on page 1813 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date, whereby a variation of the regulations of the zoning ordinance is allowed for the establishment of a delicatessen store in the basement of an existing residence at No. 2711 Wilcox street.

My reason for vetoing said ordinance is that I am advised by the chairman of the Board of Appeals that a public hearing, after notice, was held by the Board of Appeals on the application for the variation embodied in the above ordinance, and that the Board of Appeals, after such public hearing, concluded that such variation should not be granted and so reported to your honorable body.

Yours truly,

(Signed) A. J. CERMAK,

Alderman Cronson moved to reconsider the vote by which said vetoed ordinance was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Alderman Cronson moved to re-refer said ordinance to the Committee on Buildings and Zoning.

Request for an Increase in the Facilities of the 33rd Police District.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

In the Matter of the Power of the City Council to Tax the Sales of Certain Commodities and Services.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Corporation Counsel, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and State Legislation:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, February 17, 1932.

IN RE LUXURY TAXES

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—At the meeting held February 10, 1932, your honorable body passed an order (page 1793) directing the Corporation Counsel to render an opinion upon what legal restrictions (if any) would prohibit the City Council from placing a tax or fee on certain commodities and activities mentioned in said order which are designated therein as "luxury" taxes.

In order to permit the City Council to place a tax on some of the items mentioned it would be necessary to have a constitutional amendment, since the taxing of such items would amount to imposing a property tax thereon. As to the remainder, which seem to contemplate a sales tax, the passage of proper legislation by the General Assembly would be sufficient to enable the City Council to take action. At the present time, however, none of the proposed taxes could be imposed, because there is no authority delegated to the City Council under which to pass a valid ordinance imposing such a tax.

The order above mentioned further directs that the Corporation Counsel should report to the Council "such orders, resolutions or laws as may be necessary to give the City Council power to tax and license the luxuries, commodities or services enumerated, in the manner indicated." We are not complying at this time with this part of said order, because it would mean the drafting of many different legislative enactments which would be useless unless some definite program or plan were agreed upon beforehand. We will prepare these documents upon receiving further information as to just what is proposed in regard to these matters.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

LEON HORNSTEIN,
Acting Corporation Counsel.

WHEREAS, The employees of the City of Chicago in October and November, 1931, were asked to help the unemployed of Chicago by pledging themselves to contribute the equivalent of one day's pay each month for a period of six months to the Joint Emergency Relief Fund of Cook County; and

WHEREAS, Practically all of the City employees thus pledging contributions of one day's pay per month to the Joint Emergency Relief Fund, to be expended for the benefit of the unemployed of Chicago, did so under the impression that no further deductions in their salaries would be made at any time during the year 1932; and

WHEREAS, Since such City employees have sent in their pledge cards to the Joint Emergency Relief Fund, further deductions have been made from their salaries since the first of January by the City government, amounting to the equivalent of not less than six day's pay per month, causing great hardship to such employees, by reason of these pay deductions; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Joint Emergency Relief Fund of Cook County be and it is hereby requested to release all City employees who signed pledge cards agreeing to contribute the equivalent of one day's pay per month for six months for the benefit of the unemployed of this City, in view of the fact that these City employees are now suffering large deductions in their monthly salaries and wages, which such employees did not foresee at the time they signed the pledge cards in October and November, 1931; be it further

Resolved, That all such pledge cards be returned to the respective employees who signed them.

WHEREAS, It has been estimated that said company has within said inclosure sufficient territory to carry on its business as a cemetery for approximately the next seventy-five (75) to one hundred (100) years; and

WHEREAS, Said cemetery is located in a growing and thriving community immediately adjacent to two of the most highly travelled streets or highways within the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Within the last few years the said company has acquired additional property north of Peterson avenue entirely separated from the cemetery proper described above by the said Peterson avenue, said property consisting of a tract of twenty-five (25) acres and is now and has been attempting to establish another cemetery in said tract, more particularly described as the area bounded by Peterson avenue on the south, Oakley avenue on the west, Granville avenue on the north and Leavitt street on the east; and

WHEREAS, Although there has been a strong and persistent protest by residents of the North Side of Chicago generally and more particularly by its property-owners and taxpayers residing in the immediate vicinity of said tract, nevertheless the said Rosehill Cemetery Company has proceeded and is now proceeding to lay out and construct a cemetery therein and, in furtherance of said plans, is laying out a scheme for burial lots divided into spaces for graves where human bodies are to be buried, and in the further pursuit of said plans is building structures upon said tract without permits from the Building Department of the City of Chicago and is

WHEREAS, The action of the said Rosehill Cemetery Company in endeavoring to construct and promote said cemetery in said tract has been deemed, by almost all the residents and property-owners living near said tract and owning property immediately adjacent thereto, detrimental to the interests of the people in said neighborhood and the people of the City of Chicago in general, and contrary to the statutes of the State of Illinois, which specifically prohibit the extension of any cemetery beyond its existing boundaries, said statute having been passed by the Legislature of the State of Illinois in the year 1905, and which said tract of land had not been set out prior to that time by the said Rosehill Cemetery Company as a cemetery; and

WHEREAS, No attempt was made to develop said tract as a cemetery until the year 1929; and

WHEREAS, Considerable litigation is now being conducted by the City of Chicago in an endeavor to prevent the said Rosehill Cemetery Company from carrying out its plans to promote said cemetery as aforesaid; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the action of the Rosehill Cemetery Company in endeavoring to promote said cemetery in the tract described above be considered detrimental to the interests of the City of Chicago; and be it further

REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY OFFICERS (RESUMED).

MAYOR.

Recommendation for the Discharge of Certain City Employees, Etc., in Order to Save and Conserve the City's Financial Resources.

Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, submitted the following communication, which was, together with the ordinance submitted therewith, referred to the Committee on Finance:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, February 19, 1932.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—Under the provisions of an ordinance passed on January 4, 1932, appearing on pages 1626 and 1627 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of that date and generally known and spoken of as the "continuation ordinance", the various heads of the City departments and other branches of the City government were given authority, pending the passage of the annual appropriation bill for the year 1932, to employ necessary officers and employees to the extent that it is essential to do so on the basis of the appropriations therefor for the year 1931, subject to certain reductions and limitations contained in said "continuation ordinance" which would effect a saving of $1,000,000.00 per month as compared with expenditures for the similar period in the year 1931.

Such retrenchment of $1,000,000.00 per month has been found to be insufficient to enable the fiscal officers of the City to conserve or realize enough money to continue the activities of all departments and branches of the City government on the basis of the last preceding fiscal year, and it is necessary to make further retrenchment in order to maintain service in the most essential municipal activities for which the City government must provide means.

By the discharge of the employees listed below a further saving of $6,345,740.00 will be effected, and such saving is absolutely necessary in order to maintain service in said most essential municipal activities. This retrenchment will seriously affect the entire service of the City of Chicago, and it is in addition to the present economy plan now in effect by which a saving of $1,000,000.00 a month is obtained.

I, therefore, recommend that, pending the passage of the annual appropriation bill of the City of Chicago for the year 1932, in order to save and conserve the City's financial resources to the extent necessary to maintain essential functions, the various heads of the City departments and branches of the City government affected should be given authority to discharge the number of employees designated below. The following is the list and the departments in which this retrenchment will have to be effected:

Number of Employees Involved	Titles	Amount of Savings in Money Effectuated
572	Sergeants of Police.....	$1,658,800
240	Section Foremen	504,000
300	Senior Clerks	675,000
57	Battalion Marshals	228,000
112	Nurses	240,000
45	First Assistant Operating Engineers	197,100
40	Playground Directors	97,480
30	Electrical Inspectors	130,000
40	Employees of Department of Public Service	127,000
610	(305 Patrolmen and 305 Firemen), Police and Fire Departments	1,415,200
6	Print Shop—Police	16,000
182	Bridge Tenders	450,000
10	Employees of Department of Public Welfare	20,000
40	Street Inspectors	80,000
25	House Drain Inspectors.....	53,160
150	Sewer Cleaning Employees.....	220,000
20	Employees of Bath Houses.....	34,000
All	Automobile Maintenance	200,000
2,479		$6,345,740

This does not include additional retrenchments that will be necessary in the way of Electrical Street Lighting, repairmen, stopping of all water tunnel work and Water Pipe Extension, and the complete shutdown of Vehicle Tax unless some relief is granted.

The anticipated revenues for the current year are as follows:

Anticipated Miscellaneous Revenue from various licenses, not including Vehicle Tax	$14,280,000
From Taxes	42,893,129
Total.....	$57,173,129

I have caused an ordinance, embodying the retrenchment specifically set forth above, to be prepared and forward the same herewith for the consideration of your honorable body.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

A. J. CERMAK,
Mayor.

WHEREAS, The life of local municipal government is being seriously threatened by a condition finding its pivotal point in the tax and revenue machinery of our County and State, although aggravated by many other causes; and

WHEREAS, It has been publicly stated by responsible public officials that it will be impossible to continue any functions of government for any length of time unless some portion of outstanding taxes is collected; and

WHEREAS, This crisis demands a courageous attitude toward this question by the duly elected public officials, and an understanding that the people of Chicago and Cook County, although ready to accept the opinions and judgments of public-spirited citizens, will in the end demand a definite expression of opinion from their elected representatives, and a program to deal with this situation; it is hereby

Resolved, That it is the expression of the Subcommittee of the Committee on Judiciary and State Legislation that the following program is a feasible and workable program to deal with this crisis, and is a program that will best conserve the general welfare of the public and all of the taxpayers and people of the City and County;

In connection with the 1930 taxes, it is the opinion of the Subcommittee that Senate Bill No. 150 be enacted by the Legislature, with the distinct understanding, however, that provision should be made allowing a re-assessment of personalty, or any other class or classes of property for the years 1928 and 1929, as well as 1930 and subsequent years, where a court finds on application of any taxpayer that any class or classes of property has or have been deliberately and systematically under-valued or omitted from any assessment roll; with the further stipulation that such re-assessment, however, shall not hold up or delay or interfere in any way with the collection of taxes by suit or application for judgment and sale, or otherwise, as provided in the original tax roll, but such taxes must be paid; and after such re-assessment has been completed and certified, the County Clerk shall recalculate the entire roll, and each taxpayer who has overpaid shall be entitled to a refund or credit. This will permit a substantial sum of money to be obtained by the municipality at once. It should restore public confidence in the taxing machinery, as it gives ample assurance to the taxpayer that he will be treated the same as all other taxpayers, and will receive a return of any moneys overpaid. This will also allow collection on the 1930 taxes.

In order that speedy action be taken upon this entire program, which it is believed by the subcommittee is for the best interests and welfare of the community, it is essential that the legislature be again re-convened either by special session or otherwise as demanded in the resolution presented to the City Council on February 19th, and referred by the City Council to this subcommittee.

In the opinion of the subcommittee, this program will clarify the tax muddle in which our community is now enveloped, will assure stabilization of the tax machine, and will, what is more important, permit the collection of money to run necessary functions of government.

It is the belief of the subcommittee that if real estate again has confidence in the manner of tax treatment that it will receive, that millions of dollars will be immediately forthcoming from this form of wealth.

It is also the subcommittee's belief that the President of the County Board and the Governor of the State of Illinois be urged to select as the members of the Board of Review and the Assessor of Cook County men of unquestioned integrity and ability, so that real estate will be assured that personal property will commence to pay its just and fair proportion of governmental cost and obligation. It is the opinion of the subcommittee that there is no justification for the long delay that has ensued since the passage of legislation permitting the appointment of these officials. This delay is causing confusion in the minds of the public and is causing the loss of revenue to the municipalities of this community and is making a serious situation even more critical.

It is further the belief of the subcommittee that every taxing body in Cook County should be urged to effect every possible governmental economy. This is of great importance, as the City of Chicago is only the beneficiary of approximately 20% of the taxes expended. It is the understanding of the subcommittee that His Honor the Mayor has suggested that a conference be called of all of the responsible officials representing the tax-expenditure bodies in our community for the purpose of calling to the attention of these municipalities the crisis now confronting our community and the imperative need of reducing expenditures and enforcing rigid economy.

With the clarification of the tax system, with the possibility of creating an effective machinery for the immediate collection of some of the outstanding taxes, with the assurance of governmental economy, it will be possible for Chicago and Cook County to successfully deal with the present crisis.

It is the further thought of the subcommittee that every possible influence should be exerted to make possible a revision of the present archaic and antiquated revenue machinery, with the possibility of removing the so-called principle of uniformity, which has been done by practically every leading state in our country. With the removal of this so-called rule of uniformity, it will be possible to raise revenue from other sources—from the sources from which revenue is raised in other states, such as income taxes, sales taxes, securities taxes, luxury taxes, corporation franchise taxes, etc.

It is not the opinion of the subcommittee that with the abolition of the Rule of Uniformity that personal property will be compelled to pay as much as real estate bears, but rather some fair portion of what its present and potential earnings make possible.

It is further the opinion of the subcommittee that great governmental economy can be made by consolidating over-lapping governmental bodies.

Proposed Option to Pay Real Estate Taxes in Semi-annual Installments; and Proposed Partial Funding of Taxes for the Year 1932.

The following are the recommendations contained in said resolution which were deferred and ordered published:

"It is the belief of the subcommittee that the taxpayer should have the option of paying his 1930 taxes in one payment, thereby saving interest that will be charged against deferred payments, or of paying said taxes in installments, as follows:

April 15, 1932 50%
October 15, 1932 50%

with interest at the rate of 6% per annum charged on the deferred installment.

In connection with the taxes for the years 1931 (1932 taxes to be funded), 1933, 1934, etc., it is the belief of the subcommittee that installment payments should be permitted upon some fair basis to real estate.

It is the belief of the subcommittee that the funding of the 1932 taxes is advisable and that the real estate interests of Chicago and Cook County are entitled to a consideration of this character; and for this reason we recommend that the 1932 taxes be funded in such amount and percentage as legal, the opinion of the subcommittee being that it is permissible to fund the entire tax with the exception of the state's portion and the amount necessary for payment of outstanding bond and interest indebtedness."

In the Matter of Expenditure in the Central States of a Portion of the Moneys to Be Obtained by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, which was ordered published and placed on file:

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD COMPANY,
GENERAL OFFICE, BROAD STREET STATION BLDG.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., February 24, 1932.

Mr. Peter J. Brady, City Clerk, City of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR SIR:—President Atterbury has asked me to acknowledge yours of February 18th, enclosing copy of resolutions adopted by the City Council, City of Chicago, petitioning the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to impose a condition upon any funds loaned by it to The Pennsylvania Railroad Company requiring the expenditure of a fair proportion thereof in the Central States; and that the same requirement be made a part of all similar loans.

I think it is only fair that I should say that so far this company is not an applicant for any loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, but when it becomes an applicant for such a loan, the amount requested will not be anything like $100,000,000. It will probably be for an amount around $60,000,000, or $5,000,000 per month, to carry on construction work and give employment.

May I also say that if any loan is granted to carry on the entire construction and equipment program of this Company and its affiliated lines for 1932, our program contemplates that a proportion thereof will be expended in the various States which are served by our lines. I hardly need add that it is relatively only a few years ago that this company joined in a very large outlay for new terminal facilities at Chicago, and to an extent that many cities and states would have liked to have shared but could not because we first desired to meet Chicago's needs. Further, in my forty years' experience, a large amount has been expended every year in the Central States, as well as in the City of Chicago, for grade crossing elimination, yards, equipment, passenger and freight stations, and other improvement work, as well as for materials and supplies; and, as I have above indicated, 1932 will be no exception, provided adequate funds are available.

Thanking you for writing to us on the subject, and for giving us an opportunity of pointing out that Chicago has not been, and will not be, forgotten, I am

Very truly yours,

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

In the Matter of Hearings before the Illinois Commerce Commission in Reference to Gas Supplied to Users in the City of Chicago.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Corporation Counsel, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Finance:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW, }
CHICAGO, March 9, 1932. }

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

In re: Gas hearings before Illinois Commerce Commission.

GENTLEMEN—The investigation, affecting the service and the rates to gas consumers in the City of Chicago, pending before the Illinois Commerce Commission has reached the point where we believe it has become necessary to make a report to your honorable body and to request that adequate funds be provided for further work in the interest of the people of Chicago.

In the early part of 1930 certain corporations, including Insull, Son and Company, which owned and controlled large areas of natural gas acreage in the Panhandle district of Texas, joined in a project to drill wells and to construct a pipe line for delivery of natural gas in the Chicago district. Accordingly, Texoma Natural Gas Company was organized as a Delaware corporation to acquire approximately 350,000 acres of gas leases then owned by Insull, Son and Company, Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, The Texas Company, Cities Service Company, Prairie Oil and Gas Company and others.

The Texoma corporation constructed wells and gathering lines in this field and now owns all the leasehold rights, wells, pipe lines and compressor stations within the state of Texas.

A 24-inch pipe line was laid from the gas fields in Texas to Joliet, Illinois, and all that part of the pipe line from the Oklahoma state line to Joliet is now owned by Natural Gas Pipe Line Company of America, which is also a Delaware corporation.

Chicago District Pipe Line Company was organized as an Illinois corporation to transmit natural gas from Joliet to the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company operating in Chicago, the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois and the Western United Gas and Electric Company operating in the Chicago district outside the City limits.

All three of the last named companies are known as Insull utilities. The stock of Chicago District Pipe Line Company is completely owned by subsidiaries of the three Insull utilities mentioned in the proportion of the volume of gas sold by the respective companies. The stock of these subsidiary corporations are in turn owned completely by the parent Insull utilities named, i. e., Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois and Western United Gas and Electric Company.

The entire project, divided between the numerous corporations above mentioned, was designed for the purpose of bringing natural gas into the Chicago district, blending it with artificial gas manufactured by the Insull utilities, and distributing the blended gas in lieu of the manufactured gas heretofore furnished to consumers. The artificial gas heretofore sold to consumers in the Chicago district contained 530 B. T. U. while the natural gas contains 1,000 B. T. U. and, by blending the two kinds of gases in certain proportions, the number of units was fixed by the gas companies at 800.

In anticipation of its program, the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company on June 11, 1930, made application to the Illinois Commerce Commission to allow that company to bill consumers of gas upon the therm basis instead of upon the cubic foot basis. This application was docketed as Case No. 20175. On July 29, 1930, the Illinois Commerce Commission entered an order permitting the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company to issue bills to consumers of gas on the therm basis instead of on the cubic foot basis. The net bills to consumers of gas were not thereby affected. The change in the method of billing was ordered to be optional with the consumers.

When the natural gas pipe lines and facilities were substantially completed, that is to say on June 13, 1931, the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company made application to the Illinois Commerce Commission to increase the B. T. U. content of gas to be furnished to consumers in the City of Chicago from 530 per thousand cubic feet to 800 per thousand cubic feet, and to make universal the billing of gas on the therm basis instead of on the cubic foot basis. This application was docketed as Case No. 21010.

While that case was on hearing the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission a schedule of rates to be charged consumers for the blended gas with increased B. T. U. content. The rates proposed purported to reduce the price of gas to domestic consumers on the therm basis $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ and 22% for house heating purposes. The Illinois Commerce Commission thereupon ordered an investigation as to the reasonableness of these rates and docketed the case as No. 24170.

The City was represented at the hearings of all of these cases.

On October 1, 1931, the Illinois Commerce Commission entered an order consolidating Case No. 21010 with Case No. 24170 and at the same time entered an interlocutory order in the consolidated case which required the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company to file a temporary experimental schedule of rates for gas service, to be effective until the further order of the Commission, on all bills rendered on and after October 15, 1931, such schedule to provide for rates approximately $6\frac{1}{2}\%$ below the rates then in effect for domestic gas service in Chicago and approximately 31% below those in effect for space heating. It was further ordered that when the reduced rates should become effective the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company would be authorized to increase the heating value of its gas from 530 B. T. U. per thousand cubic feet to 800 B. T. U. by mixing natural gas with manufactured gas, the new standard to continue in effect only during such period as the temporary rate schedule is in effect. The Commission, however, retained jurisdiction for the purpose of making such further investigations and entering such further orders as might be necessary or desirable.

In support of the cases of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company the attorneys for that Company introduced many volumes of exhibits consisting of figures to show the cost of wells, gathering lines, pipe lines and compressor stations; the value of the properties of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company; the estimated cost of operations of Texoma Natural Gas Company, Natural Gas Pipe Line Company of America and Chicago District Pipe Line Company; the cost of operations of Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company; the estimated revenues of the different companies from the transportation, sale and distribution of natural gas and of the blended gas; numbers of contracts between the various companies forming a part of the gas project such as contracts for the interchange of gas between Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois and the Western United Gas and Electric Company; a contract between Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company and Chicago District Pipe Line Company; a contract between Chicago District Pipe Line Company and Natural Gas Pipe Line Company of America; a contract between the Natural Gas Pipe Line Company of America and Texoma Natural Gas Company; a contract between Texoma Natural Gas Company and Colorado Interstate Gas Company.

It will be seen from the mere mention of the character of the exhibits introduced in these cases, which involve a tremendous amount of detail in figures running into many millions of dollars and complicated contractual stipulations and the numerous corporate set-ups, that a careful and adequate analysis of the subject matter cannot be made by the law department in a short space of time and without competent expert engineering and accounting advice.

In November, 1931, after Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company had introduced most of its evidence in these cases, the committee on gas, oil and electricity directed the department of public service to co-operate with the law department in the interest of the consumers of gas in the City of Chicago, and employed the engineering firm of The Bemis Company to assist this department at the hearings before the Illinois Commerce Commission. A small amount of money, not to exceed $7,000.00 was made available for all the expert assistance which this department was authorized to secure for the purposes of this case.

In these circumstances the progress made in this case up to date, although substantial, has been slower than the patience of the public appears to allow. The public press has been clamoring for action and demanding immediate results for the relief of a large body of complaining gas consumers. The desired result in these cases will be jeopardized by any pressure to hurry these cases to a conclusion. There is involved here contracts extending over a period of 20 years which, if approved, may make the cost of gas to Chicago consumers irrevocably high. We would also like to have the advantage of a reasonable period of history of operations under the new order and to pass over the period of readjustment incident to the change of the character of gas and equipment which undoubtedly has proved expensive to the gas company and does not properly reflect normal costs of operation.

We desire to make as fast progress in these cases as is compatible with the best interests of the public, and we believe that interest requires not only that we be given ample time to digest the evidence offered by the gas company in this case but also to present the case of the City. In order to do this we cannot rely upon the opinion of only one engineering firm. We must have an appropriation sufficient to permit us to secure the advice of two or three engineers and accountants. In this respect the City's case is no different than, and certainly just as important as, a condemnation case in which the City is fortified by more than one expert to testify in its behalf.

Up to the present we have approved total bills in this case aggregating the sum of $6,982.94. There is no more money available in any fund for further use by this department in these cases. We respectfully request an immediate appropriation for this department of a sum sufficient to enable us to employ the necessary expert assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

Second Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Bureau of Rivers and Harbors: Statement of Operation of Navy Pier and General Harbor Activities for February, 1932.

Placed on file.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

Annual Report for the Year 1931.

The City Clerk presented the following report, submitted by the Civil Service Commission, which was ordered published and placed on file:

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
CHICAGO, January 15, 1932.

To the Honorable A. J. Cermak, Mayor, City of Chicago:

SIR—In accordance with the requirements of Section 15 of the Civil Service Act, the Civil Service Commissioners submit the Thirty-seventh Annual Report covering the transactions and affairs of the Commission for the calendar year 1931.

The personnel of the Commission was changed in April and the present board was organized May 10, 1931.

The duties of the Civil Service Commission may be summarized as judicial and administrative. These functions may be exercised separately, but more frequently they are combined.

In its judicial capacity the Commission has investigated the conduct of 245 men in the uniformed service of the Police Department alone. These charges were disposed of as follows: Number of charges preferred, 245; number of men discharged after trial, 85; number of men fined after trial, 56; number of men acquitted after trial, 93; number of charges withdrawn, 3; number of men reprimanded after trial, 4; number of cases stricken from the docket, 1; number of men resigned under charges, 2.

In connection with the proceedings before the Police Trial Board, the Commission wishes to point out that no police officer discharged by the present Commission has been reinstated by Court Order. In every case there has been a fair and impartial trial. Evidence has been transcribed and preserved and has been given due consideration before the order of discharge has been advised. All petitions for rehearing have been refused and no reinstatements have been permitted.

Administrative Duties.

The administrative duties of the Commission are as follows:

- Classification of positions;
- Determination of the character and scope of examinations;
- Holding examinations;
- Establishing eligible lists for appointment to and promotion in the service;
- Certification of payrolls;
- Administration of the Civil Service Record Law.

Classification of the Service.

The classification of the service is one of the important functions of the Commission, as it is basic to the enforcement of the requirement of competition. To accomplish this purpose, the entire service of the City must necessarily be studied so as to set forth clearly the general divisions of the municipal employments together with groupings along special lines and the establishment of appropriate titles and grading according to duties and responsibilities.

The present specifications contain a multiplicity of titles, some of which are not descriptive of the duties performed, while others are in effect duplications which lead to confusion in the administration of the law and rules. During the period covered by this report a classification has been prepared by an outside agency. These specifications indicate the duties, responsibilities, compensation and lines of promotion and advancement in the service. This adjustment means a review of all the work in all City departments. It presents a much more difficult problem than a case of original classification.

Important Examinations of the Year.

In the management of the examination division, special improvement has been made. The efforts of the Commission in this respect have been directed to: Improvement in the type of examination; improvement in methods in the examination divisions, and improvement in methods of conducting examinations.

The Commission has obtained from the appointing officers full and complete information as to the precise duties of each position under their control and of the general character and qualifications both in training and in personality, which they desired candidates to possess.

Supplementing this information, the Commission deemed it important to secure the advice and services of scientific and professional men and business administrators outside the City departments, as well as help by departmental officers. The Commission expresses its appreciation of these services which in all cases were given without remuneration of any kind. Through this active interest and assistance the application of the merit system has been greatly facilitated. Such conferences have been held in preparing for the examination for Senior Bacteriologist, which was set by Dr. Alex A. Day, Professor of Bacteriology of the Northwestern University; Dr. Lloyd Arnold, Bacteriologist, University of Illinois; Mr. C. C. Ruckhoff, Bacteriologist in Charge of the Sanitary District; Dr. John White of the Health Department; K. H. Adams, Ph. D., of the Chemistry Department of the University of Chicago, with Dr. F. O. Tonney, Director of the Public Health Laboratory of Chicago, prepared the papers for the examination for Principal Sanitary Chemist. Miss Elizabeth Hennecke, Dietitian, Cook County Hospital, and Miss Millie Kalsen of the Presbyterian Hospital, set the papers for Dietitian (Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium).

Many conferences have been held for other positions in the service, and the Commission and the City are indebted for the help so generously given.

The practical character of modern civil service examinations, is not, we believe, fully appreciated. The idea still lingers in the public mind that a civil service test is an academic affair, which has little relation to the actual qualifications of candidates but which is primarily an educational test. This fallacy seems hard to dispel.

For the position of Patrolman, 27,500 applicants were given medical and physical tests during the period covered by this report. This physical and medical examination occupied the time of the Commission's medical examiner for nearly six months. These tests are recognized as being, together with the physical examination for Fireman, perhaps the most difficult test of its kind conducted for any line of work. They are competitive in character and the men who have succeeded in securing a passing mark of even seventy per cent are young men in the prime of physical health. Its competitive character not only eliminates those who do not come up to a certain standard, but it also helps to place at the head of the list, and thus infuse into the department from the first, men whose physical condition is almost perfect.

The extension of physical qualifying examinations of a non-competitive character to all positions in the City service is a needed improvement on which this Commission must work as soon as possible. We believe that there is a responsibility to the City to see to it that only persons in good physical condition should be appointed to the public service. We therefore wish to hold qualifying physical examinations for all positions in the competitive classes, for which such examinations have not hitherto been held. Physical standards must first be agreed upon and a complete and thorough revision of the standards now in use must be made for the purpose of giving in detail the exact requirements for each position in the service. The importance of this work is emphasized as the City is committed to a plan of retirement on a pension and to an employee's benefit for illness or disability.

Section 6 of the "Act to regulate the Civil Service of Cities" was amended July 8, 1931.

The amendment of July provides that in all cases an applicant who is on an eligible register and who is not appointed within sixty days from the date of his physical examination shall be examined a second time prior to his appointment; if upon such second examination the applicant shall be less than the minimum standard fixed by the rules of the Commission, he shall not be appointed. The name of the applicant shall be retained upon the register of eligibles for appointment, and when again reached for certification and appointment, the said applicant shall be examined for the third time, and if again is found to be less than the minimum standard fixed by the rules, the name of the applicant is removed from the eligible register. The Civil Service Rules were promptly amended to give effect to the legislative intention.

The grave responsibility of this Commission to devise ways and means by constant study, research and survey, for the selection of competent public employes has been increased by the excessively large number of candidates for certain examinations. In the examination for Patrolman we had, as previously stated, 27,500 applicants. The preliminary weeding out process, through the rigid medical and physical examinations, reduced this number to 3,804 men who took the mental test on December 19th.

The records for the year disclose numerous other large examinations, among others, the following. Truant Officer, 2,835; Bathroom Attendant, 1,898; Junior Bookkeeper, 1,011; Bus Attendant, 1,012; School Clerk, 3,266; Engineer-Custodian, Board of Education, 1,225; Junior Library Clerk, 1,472; Junior Library Assistant, 1,161; Chlorine Attendant, 590; Page (Public Library), 526.

In all, 81 competitive examinations were held and 14 in the non-competitive or unskilled labor class, with a total number of 75,000 applicants, not including unskilled labor. If we add the last named we have a total of 106,847. Even these figures fail to give an adequate understanding of the vast amount of work done by the several divisions of the service. From the time an examination is announced until an eligible list is posted, an immense and varied amount of detail work too intricate for enumeration follows before the final results can be known in the form of an eligible list.

Early in our term of office it was found necessary to check the rapidly increasing number of Labor applications that threatened to swamp that particular bureau and was out of all proportion to the needs of the service. It was found impossible to check and classify them when received and even to find room for them in the filing cabinets. It entailed needless expenditure of time and labor and an absolute waste of printed materials. For Construction Laborer, 31,000 applications had been filed when prompt and decisive action was taken and the Commission discontinued the receipt of labor applications.

Important changes in local government have added greatly to the work of the Commission in recent months. First came the merging of various divisions of City departments. This reorganization caused the transfer of large groups of every grade of service and has added to the work of this Board.

Length of Time of Examinations.

The Examining Division has made every effort to expedite the promulgation of eligible lists. All competitive examinations require that candidates establish a minimum rating of 70 per cent for a general average. Consequently all papers must be rated, as each candidate is entitled by the law to be rated by his general average.

Many examinations are of a highly specialized, scientific or professional character requiring the services of outside men recognized as eminent in their particular field. They have served the City through a sense of civic duty. It is plain that the Commission cannot unduly insist that these examiners rate the papers immediately. Frequently, examinations are held for specialized positions of an unusual character for which no previous examinations have ever been held. In cases of this kind, research and study are required in order to prepare fitting examinations.

The Examining Division endeavors to prepare examinations and to rate papers as quickly as possible, but it is deemed highly inadvisable to jeopardize the validity of examinations in an attempt to gain speed in either preparation or rating.

There is nothing done in the line of civil service that will give spectacular expression to achievement and results. These can be shown only by figures and statistical reports, and even these convey only a slight idea of the volume of work that has been done by this Commission during the past few months.

Suggestions.

The law requires that the Civil Service Commission shall on or before the fifteenth of January of each year, make to the Mayor a report showing its own action, the rules in force, the practical effects thereof and any suggestions it may approve for the more effectual accomplishment of the Act.

For the more effectual accomplishment of the purposes of the civil service act we make the following suggestions.

Improved Efficiency Records.

A difficult problem confronting the Commission has been the installation of a proper system of efficiency records. It is safe to say that there is no more complex question in the Commission's work. Many Commissions have given the matter the most painstaking study and experimentation, but the work was unproductive in satisfying results.

It is impossible to apply one standard or method to the rating of all employes in all classes of work. The relative values of factors which determine the efficiency of one group with reference to their actual duties differ materially from the relative values of the same factors for other classes of employes. In some cases the factors that may be applied to one class cannot be applied to another. If the records are to be guarded against favoritism some fact basis must be found so that the rating of employes shall not depend upon careless judgment of the superior officer. Yet a complete fact basis for any kind of work which will at the same time serve as a fair ground for judging the value of services rendered as well as fitness for promotion, is almost if not quite impossible of discovery. Even if discovered it is apparently practically impossible of full enforcement.

These are a few of the difficulties which meet any one who attempts to develop a sound service record system even for a small group of employes. For a service the size of that of Chicago, with 32,000 employes, representing almost every conceivable activity, the problem is enormous. Unquestionably the present system should be radically revised. This revision will receive much study during the year. Certain records which all departments are required to keep for financial purposes will be used in determining in part the efficiency ratings. These records cover such factors as attendance and punctuality and the quantity of work performed. Other factors must also be taken into consideration which cannot be determined entirely upon a basis of facts of record. The judgment of the superior officer will play some part, although so far as possible fact records are suggested or will be developed as experience shows their possibilities.

In general the service should be divided into three parts.

First, positions the duties of which are performed wholly or almost wholly independently or under supervision.

Second, positions the duties of which are partly supervisory and administrative and partly performed independently or under supervision.

Third, positions the duties of which are wholly or almost wholly supervisory or administrative.

For the first class of positions, a part of the rating of employes can be made upon a fact basis. This is less true of the second class where the duties are partly supervisory and partly subordinate, and is true only to a slight degree of positions in the third class, the duties of which are almost entirely supervisory. Provision should be made under the proposed new scheme for the rating of employes on a mathematical basis, that is the relative efficiency of employes should be expressed in percentages. It is not suggested that these relative ratings can be finely drawn in percentages. They can, however, be indicated with a fair degree of accuracy and the substitution of percentages will give greater opportunity for discrimination, in economy and efficiency. The question of proper control is a factor that we shall never be able to ignore and you cannot get away from the element of personal judgment. The men responsible for the Public Service are given the raw material selected as best we can select, and no ideal or mathematical process will ever get beyond the fact efficiency is something intangible in the individual and almost impossible to rate apart from the commander or director.

Reorganization of the Business Methods of the Commission.

The business methods and organization of the Commission's offices have been materially improved with resultant economy of labor and money and increased efficiency. The work was begun by this board at the beginning of its incumbency. A study of the records and methods was made and new plans have been worked out which it is hoped to put into effect in a short time.

A new form of application blank has been suggested by the use of this new form and the use of a three-ply card filled out by applicants when making out the application blanks, which it is hoped will reduce the work of the application division. Through the use of the three-ply card it will be no longer necessary for the application bureau to address notices of dates of examinations, as the candidates themselves will do the work when filing applications. This card also makes unnecessary the declaration or preliminary sheet which candidates were required to write out at the beginning of each examination.

In this connection, the Commission wishes to recognize the generous assistance rendered by the Secretary and Chief Examiner in the study of office methods and suggested improvements. Mr. Osborne has worked most efficiently in co-operation with the Commission and with the employes.

Program for the Year.

During the coming year the Commission plans to concentrate on the following problems:

1. The development and extension of an effective service record system.

2. The adoption of physical standards based upon the duties involved in the position for which an examination is held; these standards to be published and to be accessible to candidates before they are examined.

3. Publication of a civil service manual which will contain all particulars necessary to candidates applying for civil service positions, such as physical standards, standards of rating mental examinations, information concerning examinations and qualifications for positions, together with weights in the examinations and other data of value and interest to the public.

4. Codification and simplification of the rules.

Conclusion.

During the past eight months, there has been a marked increase in public interest in far-reaching measures to effect greater economy and efficiency in the Municipal Service. Budgetary control and departmental reorganization are two important phases of this interest. A third and by no means the least important problem is that of insuring a competent personnel. This personnel affords the means by which the public service is carried on and the laws enforced. Its effective utilization is of commanding importance in the success of the City government. It is necessary to the successful management of the Civil Service that employes should be paid justly and promoted upon merit. The civilian service should attract the best men and women of the community in order to attract employes of proper qualifications and preliminary training. Adequate compensation must be assured, together with recogdition of individual work and an opportunity for merited advancement.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Annual Report for the Year 1931.

The City Clerk presented the following report, submitted by the President of the Board of Health, which was ordered published and placed on file:

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH,
CHICAGO, February 24, 1932.

To the Honorable, the Mayor, and Members of the City Council, City Hall, Chicago:

DEAR SIRs—As directed by ordinance, I am submitting a report upon the activities of the Board of Health for the year 1931.

I desire also to acknowledge the excellent support and whole-hearted co-operation which the Board of Health is receiving from His Honor, the Mayor, and the members of the City Council. This has been a large factor in making possible the record of accomplishment set forth in the attached report.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)

HERMAN N. BUNDESEN,
President, Board of Health.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH, 1931.

During the calendar year 1931, the Board of Health has functioned with unparalleled economy and efficiency. Notable improvements have been made, and at the same time considerable saving has been accomplished.

In order to achieve this result, the Board has laid stress upon the essential public health activities, and of necessity it has correspondingly decreased the amount of time and attention given to relatively unimportant and specialized activities, directed principally toward nuisance control, where health is not a primary factor.

The success of the Board has been due, in a large measure, to the wholehearted support of His Honor, the Mayor, and the splendid co-operation received from the City Council and the various members of the Mayor's cabinet.

Vital Statistics.

The general death rate in Chicago during 1931 has been maintained at the lowest level on record, namely, about 10.4 per cent per one thousand population.

Births were about 9 per cent fewer than during 1930, reflecting a decline which is general throughout the country. The actual number of deaths of infants has been fewer during the period covered by this report, but the rate per thousand births rose from 53.4 in 1930 to 56.3 in 1931, thus reflecting the unsatisfactory economic conditions, and indicating the urgent need for emphasis on child welfare activities at this time.

Communicable Diseases.

It has often been said that an estimate of the efficiency of a bureau of communicable diseases can be judged from the record made in the control of typhoid fever and smallpox, the two diseases concerning the control of which we have most definite information. Of recent years there has been added another disease, diphtheria, preventable as well as curable, which is also used as an index to the efficiency of control by a bureau of communicable diseases.

With these three diseases as our unit of measure of the effectiveness of control of communicable diseases, let us analyze the 1931 record for each.

Smallpox.

Chicago had less than half as many cases of smallpox in 1931 as she had in 1930, the figures being 58 for 1931, and 130 in 1930. This is the smallest total for this disease for any year since 1926 when the cases numbered but 54, which was the lowest since 1916.

This splendid showing for smallpox in 1931 is the more remarkable when we contrast these 58 Chicago cases with the rest of the state of Illinois which has only a slightly larger population than has Chicago. Down-state Illinois reported over 1700 cases of smallpox for 1931, and a large number of these cases occurred in northern Illinois where their introduction into Chicago was easily possible. The low incidence of smallpox is attributable to the fact that Chicago's population is much more generally vaccinated against smallpox than are the majority of down-state cities, or rural areas. As it costs Chicago approximately 150 dollars to hospitalize and care for each case of smallpox within her limits, it represents a worth-while financial saving if Chicago can have only one-thirtieth as much smallpox to care for as does the rest of Illinois.

Typhoid Fever.

This disease in 1931 hit the lowest level in Chicago's history. The number of cases totaled but 97, and the number of deaths but 13. This is the first time the total cases for any one year has been under 100, or the deaths under 16. In 1930 the total cases numbered 124 and the deaths 20. When this typhoid fever record for one year is compared with that for 1891 when there were nearly 20,000 cases and almost 2,000 deaths, we have a convincing example of the truth of that saying that public health work pays big dividends, plus a substantial bonus, on funds expended in the control, suppression, and prevention of communicable diseases.

Had the 1891 rate for typhoid fever still prevailed in 1931, there would have been in Chicago 60,113 cases of typhoid fever, instead of 97, with 6,010 deaths, instead of 13. Estimating a human life at $5,000, this saving for one year for this one disease represents a total of $300,000,000.

The marked decrease in typhoid fever through the years is well visualized by the following data by decades:

Year	Cases	Chicago's Population	Case Rate per 100,000 Population	Deaths	Death Rate per 100,000 Population
1891.....	19,970*	1,148,795	1,738.3	1,997	173.8

1931.....	97	3,458,100	2.8	13	0.37

*Estimated 10 cases to each death.

The following data, giving the six-year average for typhoid fever deaths in the cities of the United States with a population over 500,000, shows that Chicago has the best average record for this six-year period:

These figures mean that had the death rate in 1891 still prevailed in 1931, there would have been not 216 but a total of 4,087 deaths.

Scarlet Fever.

The year 1931 had an improved record for this disease, the cases totaled 8,209 and the deaths 180, while in 1930 the cases numbered 9,599 and the deaths 201, a favorable difference of 1,590 cases and 21 deaths. Fortunately, scarlet fever is not as fatal as diphtheria, as only one out of 40 stricken die from scarlet fever, while one out of 14 of those attacked die from diphtheria. However, there has been a tendency during the past three years for a larger number of the reported cases of scarlet fever to be of the more malignant type.

There was no extensive city-wide outbreak of

In addition to this splendid record for smallpox and typhoid fever, the diphtheria record is better for 1931 than for 1930.

Diphtheria.

The total cases of diphtheria in 1931 numbered 3,145 and the deaths 216, as contrasted with 4,962 cases and 411 deaths in 1930.

While the conquest of diphtheria in Chicago has not been so marked as that for typhoid fever, yet, when we contrast the record in 1891 with that of 1931, we again have the proof that public health pays.

There was no generalized city-wide outbreak of diphtheria, but several localized cases were around certain schools. In 1930 there were no schools which had 10 or more cases during any one given month.

Cases	Case Rate per 100,000 Population	Deaths	Death Rate per 100,000 Population scarlet fever, but there were several localized outbreaks centered about certain schools. In 1931 there were nine schools where 10 or more cases were recorded during any given month.

Measles.

Every other year in Chicago's past history has been a measles year and 1931, as anticipated, was no exception to the rule. Contrasting the record for 1931 with that of 1929, the previous year with measles prevalent, there were in 1931 a total of 12,229 cases and 63 deaths, while in 1929 there were 17,717 cases and 166 deaths.

When we contrast the total cases and deaths for the following six-year periods, it appears that some progress is being made in decreasing the total cases and deaths.

Infantile Paralysis.

Chicago was fortunate in 1931 in escaping an extensive outbreak of infantile paralysis such as prevailed in New York City and points in Massachusetts. While Chicago had fewer cases than in 1930, the disease was more fatal, as indicated by the total of 170 cases in 1931 with 32 deaths, while in 1930 the cases numbered 192 and deaths 26. As Chicago had but 170 of the more than 740 cases in Illinois, we must conclude that we were fortunate in escaping with one-third as many cases as occurred in the rest of the state, as our population is approximately the same as the rest of the state.

Epidemic Meningitis.

This disease, during 1931, was more prevalent and a larger number of deaths resulted than in the preceding year, the figures being 364 cases for 1931 with 198 deaths, while in 1930 there were 263 cases and 130 deaths. This highly fatal disease attacks people of all ages, the majority of cases occurring in people under 40 years of age. However, 39 of the 364 cases were in people over 40 years of age. Of the 364 cases, 356 were hospitalized, as the opportunity for diagnosis and treatment is best in the hospital. Hospitalization gets the sick person out of the neighborhood and prevents many contacts that might lead to infection of others.

Influenza.

Early in 1931 an epidemic of influenza of moderate severity occurred. The increased incidence of this disease began during the week which ended January 26. How very abrupt was the onset is shown by 10 cases for the week prior to this outbreak, and 226 cases for the week the peak of this influenza epidemic occurred, the week ending January 30, when 411 cases were reported. The following week brought reports of 244 cases. The decline in cases was fairly rapid after that, with a normal prevalence by the end of February. During this short outbreak there was a total of 1,100 cases reported.

The mortality, too, of influenza increased during the latter part of this period with 19 cases for the third week of February, and 38, 59, and 54 cases, respectively, for the following weeks, with a gradual decline to normal about the first week of March.

Because of this outbreak of influenza in 1931, the total number of cases for the year totaled 1,346 and deaths 379, while in 1930 there were but 306 cases and 194 deaths.

Pneumonia.

In 1931 the total cases of pneumonia numbered 7,937 with 2,677 deaths, while in 1930 there were 6,573 cases and 2,525 deaths. An influenza outbreak always brings an increased number of cases and deaths from pneumonia, and the increase over the 1930 record was undoubtedly due to the influenza epidemic early in the year.

Whooping Cough.

This disease was decidedly more prevalent and fatal in 1931 than in 1930, as shown by a total of 5,186 cases and 79 deaths in 1931, while in 1930 the cases totaled 3,418 and deaths 54.

A new plan of inspection for both public and parochial schools was inaugurated at the opening of schools in September, 1931.

This new plan gives more prompt service in schools for the discovery and exclusion of contagious diseases found in schools. In this effort to speed up the prompt examinations for cases of communicable diseases, the Board does what is now done in most large cities; namely, assigns either a doctor or a nurse for a daily visit to each school. By combining the force of physicians and nurses, it gives for this work a staff of 240 individuals, instead of 120, as formerly. This improved service in volume and in quality is being rendered without an additional expense for the increase in personnel.

This school service for communicable disease control in 1931 made 1,563,625 superficial examinations, looking chiefly for sore throats indicating suspicion of diphtheria, peeling hands or feet showing scarlet fever, or for the rash of measles, or signs of mumps, whooping cough or infected heads, etc. Other examinations for contagious diseases totaled 911,111.

It was found necessary in making these 2,474,736 inspections and examining cases suspicious of contagion to exclude 18,809 pupils.

The great value of this work in excluding these contagious diseases should be reflected during 1932 in a decreased amount of contagion in the school children of Chicago.

Another new activity which has improved the service was made possible through the co-operation of the Commissioner of Police. In December, 1931, the placarding of premises by police on assignment by the Board of Health was initiated. By this plan there is placarding very promptly at any hour of the day and evening; thus quarantine is often placed several hours earlier than formerly. This service by the Department of Police is also of value because the police officer placing the sign warns the occupants that quarantine must be observed.

Municipal Contagious Disease Hospital.

The Municipal Contagious Disease Hospital treated a somewhat larger number of scarlet fever patients than during 1930.

The admissions for meningitis, measles, chickenpox and whooping cough in 1931 were greater than in 1930, and the number of hospital days for all cases showed a slight increase over the figure for 1930.

A Drinker respirator was secured by the President of the Board of Health for the hospital without cost to the City, and is a valuable innovation for this institution.

Costs for provisions were greatly reduced.

In 1931 the activities of the Lawndale Hospital for the treatment of venereal diseases, and the Isolation Hospital for the care of smallpox patients, decreased somewhat as compared with those of 1930.

Child Welfare.

The number of examinations for defects of school children increased 130 per cent in 1931, and the proportion of defects remedied was also increased 188 per cent in contrast with 1930, reflecting a notable achievement in attaining results.

The attendance at prenatal, infant welfare, and preschool clinics was greater, in general, but especially in the preschool clinics, where the increase was 320 per cent over 1930, attributable in part to the economic situation and in part to a growing appreciation by the public of the value of the advice given at the clinics.

The lower number of infant deaths previously referred to, has a direct relationship to the effective work of the prenatal and infant welfare stations.

Dental Work.

In addition to the large number of examinations of school children for dental defects, nearly 25,000 fillings have been inserted in teeth, and 11,000 teeth extracted.

A special campaign against trench mouth infection in one school resulted in the cure of 300 sufferers.

Sanitary Engineering.

The low typhoid fever rate, previously mentioned, indicates the care exercised by the Board of Health and the Department of Public Works in safeguarding the purity of the City water by the control of sources of pollution, and proper treatment and adequate laboratory tests. There has been greater freedom from disagreeable tastes originating from contamination of the lake by phenols, than in any previous year, although occasionally tastes due to algae have been noted.

The elimination of cross connections in plumbing systems has prevented localized contamination of the water, and only one case has been reported where an outbreak of disease in a factory was attributed to the water supply. In that case prompt steps were taken to correct the plumbing so as to prevent a recurrence.

In October, 1931, on advice of the President of the Board of Health, because of the loss of 50 to 100 lives for the year from carbon monoxide poisoning, due to illuminating gas, the Gas Company began disconnecting water heaters using gas as fuel, where such heaters were installed in a manner likely to be dangerous to life. As a result, there has been a sudden cessation in deaths due to carbon monoxide poisoning from this source.

Bureau of Dairy Products.

The laboratory analyses indicate that the milk supply of Chicago has been the purest that it has ever been in the history of the Board of Health. With a smaller personnel than heretofore, greater efficiency in the inspection force has resulted in more inspections and better control than previously.

Bureau of Food Control.

The control of foodstuffs other than milk has been improved in two respects. A more careful inspection of foods, resulting in the detection and condemnation of greater amounts of inedible food in retail stores, has been achieved.

The washing and sterilizing of dishes in public eating establishments has been considerably improved as the result of a special drive to reduce mouth-borne diseases which may be spread through infected secretion on dishes and utensils.

Owing to the more stringent sanitary requirements a recent ordinance which must be complied with before a license for a food establishment can be issued, the cleanliness of food establishments has reached a new high standard, never before attained in this City.

Laboratories and Research.

Future progress for the improvement of health has been sought in research studies conducted by the laboratories of the Board of Health. Considerable time has been spent in improving and simplifying methods of water analysis, and new developments have resulted, which give earlier and more accurate information upon the safety of water supplies, and at a lower cost than the current methods.

Improved methods for the detection of toxic gases have been developed, and determinations of the toxicity of artificial and natural illuminating gases have been made in connection with the introduction of natural gas into Chicago.

Fungus infections of the skin, commonly denoted as "athlete's foot," have been studied, especially from the standpoint of the effectiveness of measures for protecting the public against such infections.

Public health education by radio has proved to be a particularly productive field for study and research. Improved technic of presentation, better organization of material and data, and enlargement of the applicability of the radio, have been special phases of the study. Application of the principles evolved, to the recent diphtheria campaign, has brought surprising and unprecedented success.

Psychopathic Laboratory.

The Psychopathic Laboratory has handled approximately 40 per cent more cases during 1931 than during 1930, notwithstanding a reduction in personnel.

Economies.

The foregoing statements show that in the important public health activities, decided improvements have been made. This is especially gratifying because of our effort to concentrate upon these important activities and our refusal to be distracted by unproductive and non-essential activities. There has been effected an estimated saving in 1931 of $300,000 in the appropriations of the Board of Health.

The total appropriations for 1931 for the Board of Health were $2,569,782, and the estimated saving is approximately 12 per cent of this amount.

COMMENTS.

Cash Receipts.

In Exhibit "A" we present the detail of Cash Receipts as deposited in the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company. The amount of $67,118.30 represents Poppy Day Collections from coin boxes turned into District Banks or to the General Office as evidenced by letters from the District Banks or by other memoranda on file. We did not determine the number of unaccounted-for coin boxes nor were the amounts contained in the coin boxes verified other than by reference to correspondence or other memoranda on file. The amount of $900.00 represents advances made by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and United Spanish War Veterans to the Association, which were subsequently repaid. The total Cash Receipts amounting to $68,018.30 were traced to deposit in the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company.

Cash Disbursements.

In Exhibit "B" we present the detail of Cash disbursed during the period under review. We examined cancelled checks and vouchers on file and noted that they were signed and approved by proper officials. Invoices covering purchases were examined and appeared proper.

Reconciliation of Bank Account.

In Exhibit "C" we present the reconciliation of the Associations Bank Account as at the close of business June 17, 1931. The Balance on Deposit of $21,668.88 was determined as follows:

Receipts (Exhibit "A").....	$68,018.30

THIRTY-EIGHTH WARD.Extension of an Official Welcome to Ignace Jan Paderewski.

Aldermen Landmesser, Rostenkowski, Lagodny, Orlikoski and Konkowski presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, On March eleventh of this year 1932, His Excellency Ignace Jan Paderewski, former President of the First Polish Government after the recognition of Poland as an independent State through the Versailles Treaty, is coming to Chicago as our dear and most respected guest of honor.

Blessed by God with unusual qualities of character and spirit, he is also the greatest and most admired musical genius, and his creations and productions have secured for him world fame and immortal glory.

But more than through his activity in that field, Ignace Jan Paderewski distinguished himself as the greatest Patriot in the successful work of the rebuilding of Poland, the glorious land of his origin, now free and independent. He has sacrificed his fortune, all his high connections, his fame, his great knowledge and oratorical talents to this effect. Throughout his life he makes every possible effort to strengthen the position of his beloved and resurrected Poland and to secure her future through the inseparable ties with the Motherland and chief promoter of her freedom, the United States, which was greatly instrumental in the emancipation of the other oppressed nations of Europe.

In those efforts Paderewski represented to us and to the whole world the real soul of the Polish nation, all the wonderful qualities of the national character of Poland and the great value of our collaboration with this great factor of human culture and civilization. Paderewski is perhaps the only one on earth whose name is synonymous with his fatherland, Poland. Wherever Paderewski appears, Poland is present and if we honor Paderewski, we honor Poland. To know Paderewski is enough to love the Poles and Poland.

But Paderewski, incomparable in many things, is trying to reciprocate in every possible way the charitable work and the sacrifice of the United States for the help given Poland at the beginning of her new independent life. Paderewski, one of the most ardent workers in the world, spends many hours each day at the piano, and represents his own country in his efforts to alleviate here and abroad the terrible consequences of the war by contributing to the meager funds for widows and orphans left behind by those fallen or impoverished in the world war.

Three years ago, he donated a liberal part of the income from his concerts here to the American Legion. This year he gave a number of his concerts to the fund for the unemployed and to the fund for needy musicians. For the latter he secured through his concert in New York more than $40,000.

Ignace Jan Paderewski has thereby furnished the very best proof of his warm interest in the welfare of the American people and is bound to us with ties of love and true faithfulness.

In expressing our deepest admiration for his genius, his patriotism, his spirit of self-sacrifice and his whole-hearted generosity, we most warmly and most cordially welcome him in the name of our City and bestow upon him the freedom of the City of Chicago. Therefore, be it Resolved, That this document bearing the signatures of our Mayor and the Aldermen be spread in the archives of the City of Chicago, and an engrossed copy on parchment be handed personally to Ignace Jan Paderewski by our Mayor, the Honorable Anton J. Cermak, on the occasion of his official welcome to our city.

Unanimous consent was given to permit action on said resolution without reference thereof to a committee.

Enclosure.

ILLINOIS MUNICIPAL LEAGUE
Urbana, Illinois

To the Mayors and Councilmen of Illinois Municipalities:

In Re: The Attitude of Candidates for State Office Toward Municipalities—To Be Read at your Next Council or Board Meeting.

On April 12th the people of Illinois will nominate candidates for the office of Governor and members of the General Assembly. The municipal officials of Illinois cities and villages have a responsibility to do their part in seeing that state officials are chosen who will take a fair attitude toward municipalities. Every municipal official should cause every candidate for Governor and the General Assembly to reveal frankly his attitude on the following three propositions which are of outstanding and paramount importance to the future development and well-being of Illinois municipalities, which comprise 75% of the population and about 85% of the wealth of the State. These three issues are:

1. Home Rule
2. Public Utilities
3. Gas Tax

1. Home Rule for Cities and Villages. The principle of local self-government is so fundamental that it cannot be trifled with without serious consequences to the general welfare of the State. Home rule relates to all phases of municipal operations, and is based on the principle that local affairs should be settled by the people of the locality concerned, or their duly authorized authorities. No man should be allowed to become Governor or a member of the General Assembly who sees no danger in the creation of state boards of control over local expenditures. The further creation of state boards, bureaus and commissions to centralize authority at the state capitol should be vigorously opposed by all municipal officials. And any candidate for state office who favors the further extension of the centralization of state government should also be vigorously opposed, regardless of party or faction;

2. Public Utilities. Every municipal official in Illinois should cause every candidate for Governor and the General Assembly to frankly reveal his attitude on the public utility issue. This issue includes the following three phases:

(a) The making of regulation of public utilities in Illinois more effective. At the present time our Commerce Commission does little more than go through the motions of regulation stimulated by the companies. Such states as Wisconsin, California, New York and Massachusetts, have real regulation. One means of effective regulation is to require the companies to pay the costs of the preparation of the public's side of the case as well as their own. This makes it easier for cities to raise money to adequately prepare the public's side of the case. More effective control over security issues should also be had, due to the fact that under the present Commission, the companies have been allowed to increase their valuations for the purpose of issuing securities out of all reason, without even so much as a frown from the Commission;

(b) The extension of the powers of municipalities to acquire and operate municipal utilities, including an extra 2½% bonding power for utility acquisition and a law which will enable municipalities to pay for municipal utilities out of the earnings of the plant without in any way pledging the taxable resources of a city, so that the purchase money mortgage against the plant acquired will not be an indebtedness of the municipality within its constitutional limitations.

(c) Local municipal regulation of utilities by amending Article VI of the Commerce Commission Act, so that appeals from regulations imposed by the city will be taken to the courts, rather than to the Commerce Commission.

3. The Gas Tax—Use of Its Revenues. The cities and villages of Illinois are in all fairness entitled to the use of one-third of the gas tax revenues. The 1 — 1 — 1 gas tax plan, giving one-third to the municipalities, one-third to the counties, and one-third to the state should be made an issue in every senatorial district in the state by municipal officials. Candidates for the General Assembly, particularly, should be put on record on this issue. It is the only way in which municipalities will ever be able to get a fair deal at the hands of the General Assembly. This one item alone means $10,000,000 a year for street purposes to the municipalities of Illinois. It is very much worth fighting for. Don't be satisfied with doing the work yourself. Get every friend, colleague and worker you know of hammering this issue into the consciousness of candidates for the General Assembly.

Municipal officials throughout the state should get very busy during the next three weeks, and have all their friends and supporters communicate by letter and telegram to all candidates for state office, insisting that they state their attitude on these three issues fairly and squarely. Municipal officials, their friends and supporters, should then cast their votes according to the responses and results obtained from the candidates.

Municipal officials must work together on these issues, if they ever hope to accomplish their purposes. If we do not work together we can only blame ourselves for not giving these issues first consideration regardless of party or faction, when it comes to casting our votes for the state officials.

CHICAGO FEDERATION OF LABOR,
CHICAGO, March 14, 1932.

DEAR SIR—At a meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor, held Sunday, March 6th, special order of business was consideration of the subject, "Control of local governments by so-called citizens' committees".

After several hours' discussion of this subject, resolutions were adopted unanimously, expressing the opinion of organized labor on the subject.

We are taking the liberty of enclosing copy of each of the resolutions for your earnest consideration. We also ask your active co-operation in connection with the subject matter.

WHEREAS, The failure to pay school teachers' salaries since last April and to pay policemen, firemen and other public employes this year, has been caused by the re-assessment ordered in 1928, manipulated and delayed for 26 months, when no taxes were collected, settling upon the taxpayers of Cook County an interest charge up to date of $61,000,000.00; and

WHEREAS, It was George O. Fairweather, representing the loop property owners, and Silas Strawn, representing the loop bankers, and other so-called LEADING citizens, who manipulated the re-assessment, which has impoverished all the local governments in Cook County by the expenditure of $61,000,000.00 in interest on tax warrants and the reduction of valuations on loop property to the extent of $340,000,000.00; and

WHEREAS, We now find George O. Fairweather again in the front of the picture, with other so-called LEADING citizens, demanding that the cost of local government be reduced $70,000,000.00 by cutting down the school year, eliminating many necessary activities in our school system, and by curtailing and throwing the switch on education; and

WHEREAS, This same group—George O. Fairweather, D. F. Kelly, etc.—are the hand-picked spokesmen for a conspiracy that has been formulated in the interests of big tax-dodgers for two purposes:

First—To prevent the assessment on personal property, such as stocks, bonds and other securities, and

Second—To control our local governing bodies

so they can administer them to suit their own purposes; and

WHEREAS, These special interests, who are heavy advertisers in the large daily newspapers, called a meeting in a downtown club some three weeks ago, requesting and securing the attendance of the publishers of the large daily newspapers, with every large loop bank represented, and there formulated a program for the purpose above mentioned, and we now find public officials being threatened with political oblivion if they fail to do their bidding; and

WHEREAS, Already this combination has been successful in having appointed as the one-man Assessor of Cook County, Mr. J. L. Jacobs, so-called "efficiency engineer" who has been used often in labor arbitrations and in public service to tear down wages and working conditions; they have also been successful in reducing the Police and Fire Departments, by not filling vacancies and in discharging food inspectors, nurses and doctors from the Health Department, and hundreds of other employees necessary to the health, safety and comfort of our citizens, and in reducing the wages of Civil Service employees in the City and County service, far beyond the reduction in the cost of living, and are further threatening the discharge of more employees in departments necessary to the welfare of the people; and

WHEREAS, Unless the real taxpayers, the small home owners, the wage earners, and the small merchants, who constitute the majority of our citizenry, become aroused and conscious of what is happening, we will find our local governments completely dominated and controlled by this group of special interests; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the delegates of the Chicago Federation of Labor, in general meeting assembled, do hereby

1. Commend the majority members of the Board of Education for their courage in refusing to be controlled by this clique of special interests in the preparation and passage of their 1932 budget, which budget, while carrying a reduction of $11,000,000.00, does not meet with the approval of the Fairweather-Kelly group, who demand three times that reduction.

2. Pledge our support to such majority members of the Board of Education, and to every other public official who will exercise the independence and courage so vitally necessary at this time, to safeguard our local governments in resisting domination by this organized clique of special interests.

3. Instruct the President of the Chicago Federation of Labor to appoint a committee on Public Information, whose duty it shall be to arrange a program containing information to be transmitted over LABOR's broadcasting station, WCFL, and by publication in the Federation News and community newspapers, and through the various trades unions, with the hope and to the end of acquainting the mass of the citizenry with all the facts as to this conspiracy, and with the record of every public official who bows his head and does the bidding of the conspirators, and with the record of every public official who stands up and serves the interests of the public without fear or favor.

Resolution unanimously adopted by the Chicago Federation of Labor, March 6, 1932.

WHEREAS, Certain individuals have formed a so-called "Citizens' Committee", and have set themselves up as a sort of super-government, and are attempting to dictate policies to the duly elected and appointed representatives of the people; and

WHEREAS, Several members of this committee are tax-dodgers, having failed to pay their proportionate share of taxes necessary to keep the various governments functioning properly, and are the same people who agitated and propagandized for, and brought about the re-assessment of real estate, which reduced the valuation of Chicago loop property by more than $380,000,000.00, and has already cost the people of Cook County more than $62,000,000.00 in interest charges alone, and so delayed the collection of taxes that it caused the tax bills to be bunched over a short period of time, making it practically impossible for many people to meet these payments, especially in view of the closing of hundreds of banks; and

WHEREAS, They are the spokesmen of the bankers, publishers of large newspapers, and other financial interests which have long evaded paying their proportionate share of taxes on personal property; and

WHEREAS, If their suggested policies are carried out, the various governmental bodies in Cook County will be so crippled that health and property will be endangered and public school education so seriously retarded that our City will suffer for years to come; and

WHEREAS, If, as they suggest, the vast number of employees are discharged, they will be added to the enormous army of unemployed, and be forced to take advantage of the relief offered by the various charitable organizations that are at the present time being supported by the taxpayers' money, and in reality, this will therefore be no saving to the taxpayer, while at the same time necessary public service will be crippled; and

WHEREAS, These tax-dodgers, for the purpose of beclouding the issue and protecting their wealth, claim that the cost of government has increased so that the taxpayer is no longer able to meet his taxes, the facts are that the failure of hundreds of banks in Chicago within the last two years, the stock market losses suffered by the people as a result of market manipulations and the loaning to Europe and other foreign countries of billions of dollars by those directing the finances of this Nation for the selfish gain of themselves and their confederates, are the real causes of the inability of many people to meet their taxes at the present time, and has caused the breakdown in both industry and government; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we demand of the duly elected and appointed officials of the City of Chicago and of the County of Cook that they live up to their oath of office and give to our citizens the governmental facilities to which they are entitled, and that we commend the Board of Education of the City of Chicago for protecting the children of Chicago, and especially the children of the poor; and be it further

Resolved, That every effort be made by the proper officials to compel personal property to bear the burden of taxation in the same proportion as does real estate, which in the past has borne practically the entire cost of government, as disclosed by the decision of County Judge Jarecki, which showed that approximately $24,000,000.00 of personal property was entirely escaping taxation; and be it further

Resolved, That the President of the Chicago Federation of Labor be and he hereby is authorized and directed to appoint a committee to carry out the purpose of these resolutions; to appear before the various budget committees of local governments, informing them of Labor's stand on these matters; and to inform the people by radio and every other available means of the underlying motives of those who are attempting to curtail the necessary functions of government and reduce the budgets in an attempt to satisfy real estate taxpayers without being compelled to pay their own fair proportion of their taxes on personal property.

Resolution adopted by unanimous vote of the Chicago Federation of Labor, March 6, 1932.

Proposed Amendment of the Regulations Concerning Indemnifying Bonds.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the City Comptroller, which was, together with the ordinance transmitted therewith, referred to the Committee on Finance:

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE,
CHICAGO, March 16, 1932.

Honorable Peter J. Brady, City Clerk:

DEAR SIR—Herewith we submit tentative form of ordinance for amendment of the "Revised Code of 1931" by the addition of sections regarding indemnifying bonds. This ordinance has been examined and redrawn by the Corporation Counsel.

At present the code contains one general section, No. 13, Page 9, in regard to indemnifying bonds which require the approval of the City Council. As to indemnifying bonds which do not require the approval of the City Council, there are no general provisions, but each case is treated separately in different subject matters appearing in different parts of the code.

As to bonds where the ordinances now provide for the approval of sureties by the Commissioner of Public Works, we have made an exception in the requirement for approval by the Comptroller because the Commissioner of Public Works has developed a practical system for passing on the sureties, and in numerous cases it is important that the approvals be made more promptly than would be possible if additional approvals were required.

In addition to providing general requirements which will apply to all indemnifying bonds to be taken by the City, except as noted, this ordinance contains important provisions as to personal sureties in that it definitely requires:

- (a) Two personal sureties on any bond;
- (b) A sworn schedule by each personal surety of real estate, with a net value of at least twice the penalty in the bond;
- (c) That every personal surety shall furnish evidence as to the title and value of the real estate scheduled, at the time of signing the bond, and supplementary evidence as to the title, as required by the Comptroller, and
- (d) That personal sureties will not be accepted on bonds where the penalty is in excess of $5,000.00.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) M. S. SZYMCAK,
Comptroller.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

In the Matter of Litigation to Compel the Removal of Curb Gasoline Pumps.

The City Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Corporation Counsel, which was, together with the copy of the judgment order transmitted therewith, referred to the Committee on Gas, Oil and Electricity:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, March 16, 1932.

The Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

The People of the State of Illinois ex rel. James Lapice vs. Louis Wolper et al. Circuit Court of Cook County. No. B-234379.

GENTLEMEN—This letter is written to inform your honorable body that the above entitled case is the mandamus proceeding instituted to compel the removal of curb gasoline pumps. The case has been tried before Judge Thomas Taylor who decided that the municipality lacked the power to authorize the installation and regulate the use of curb pumps in public streets, and that the City's ordinance of November 18, 1931, was therefore invalid. On March 12, 1932, the Circuit Court entered its judgment order finding that the curb pumps involved in this particular case constitute an unlawful obstruction, an encroachment, a purpresture and a public nuisance upon the street, and were in violation of the rights of the people, and also finding that the City's ordinance of November 18, 1931, is void in so far as it purports to authorize the erection and maintenance of said pumps for private gain upon the public street. The order also provides that a writ of mandamus issue commanding the defendants to remove the pumps. A copy of the order is enclosed herewith.

The defendants to the action against whom the writ will issue are Louis and Harold Wolper (owners of the pumps in question) the City of Chicago, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Superintendent of Streets, and the Commissioner of Police.

The defendants jointly and severally prayed and were allowed an appeal direct to the Supreme Court of Illinois. It is expected that the case on appeal will be docketed in the June term, 1932. This is the earliest term to which the case may be submitted under the court's rules. A final decision can hardly be expected before the October term, 1932.

The appeal operates to stay, pending the disposition of the case on appeal, the judgment order commanding the defendants to remove the pumps involved in this case.

In the status produced by the above mentioned decision and judgment it is, as we see it, the duty of the City to continue to enforce the ordinance of November 18, 1931, and compel owners and operators of curb pumps to secure the permits and pay the prescribed permit fees. In cases where the payment of the permit fees is refused the City should take the necessary steps to compel the removal of the pumps concerned.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) MARTIN H. FOSS,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Yours truly,

WM. H. SEXTON,
Corporation Counsel.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, March 23, 1932.)

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—In accordance with a long established custom the corporation counsel from time to time has reported to the City Council all final judgments against the City which have been published in the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council under the title of "Settlements of Lawsuits."

Section 35 of the Revised Chicago Code of 1931 imposes a duty upon the corporation counsel and all other officers of the City who shall be given authority to make settlement of lawsuits or of controverted claims against the City to report in writing all cases where settlements have been made of such lawsuits or claims. It is provided also that the corporation counsel shall certify all final judgments against the City in the manner provided in Section 88.

Section 88 referred to requires the corporation counsel to certify to the city comptroller all judgments when the corporation counsel is of the opinion that an appeal or other further proceedings are not justified.

In the reports heretofore made by this department to the city council, published under the title of "Settlements of Lawsuits", were included not only judgments entered by agreement or settlement, but also judgments rendered after a trial upon the merits when, in the opinion of the corporation counsel, no further proceedings would be proper and an appeal not justified.

To correct the false impression that may have been made by reason of the combined reports from this department on and after May 1, 1931, published under the title of "Settlements of Lawsuits", we submit herewith a recapitulation of those judgments, indicating which were the result of trial by jury and which were the result of settlement by this department.

Hereafter we shall report to the city council only those judgments which are entered by agreement, and we shall certify to the city comptroller, as provided by the ordinance, all judgments when, in our opinion, no further proceedings are proper and an appeal is not justified.

The judgments heretofore reported are classified as follows:

(It will be noted from the dates on which judgments were entered that a number of the earlier cases were tried or settled during the previous administration, and these judgments were released during the months covered in the following report.)

Announcement of the Committee Policy Not to Recommend the Passage of Orders for Special Building Permits.

The Committee on Buildings and Zoning submitted the following report:

CHICAGO, March 15, 1932.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Buildings and Zoning, having had under consideration sundry orders directing the issuance of permits for the alteration of buildings, contrary to the provisions of the building ordinances of the City of Chicago, beg leave to report that your Committee appointed a subcommittee consisting of Aldermen Cepak, Corr, Northrup, Morris, and Coughlin to confer with the Commissioner of Buildings and the Corporation Counsel, for the purpose of formulating a policy to be adhered to by the City Council and the Department of Buildings in the matter of orders authorizing violations of the building ordinances, which subcommittee was advised by the Corporation Counsel and the Commissioner of Buildings that orders of this nature have no legal effect, for the reason that the provisions of the building ordinances cannot be suspended or amended by an order and that the Commissioner of Buildings is not in any way bound by such orders passed by the City Council.
